

KUZMECHS WEEP AT JOYFUL REUNION

Bands, Cheers Greet Returnees

Seeing their son home safely, Mr. and Mrs. John Kuzmeh weep happily. The Pottstown area couple greeted their son, Lt. Frank Kuzmeh, when he stepped from a troopship in San Francisco yesterday. The meeting ended more than two years of separation.

(Mercury Staff Writer)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20 — Youthful, handsome Lt. Frank Kuzmeh arrived in San Francisco today, greeted by a colorful show of spraying fire boats, tooting tugs, zippy band music and cheers of thousands of spectators from the crowded dock.

It was a real heroes' welcome for the 301 repatriated prisoners of war aboard, but for the 25-year-old Air Force lieutenant, it was one of the most gripping incidents of his young life.

He was standing against the rail of the big troopship, along with the thousands of other soldiers, sailors, and marines on board.

As the big ship glided slowly the last hundred yards, men were waving and yelling at mothers, fathers, and wives, but Frank Kuzmeh leaned casually against the rail.

It was a wonderful sight for him as he arrived in the US after two years in Red Prison camps, but there was nothing to get really excited about.

There was no one down there in that crowd waiting for him.

He was sure there was no one there because he had written his mother and father not to make the trip to the coast. They wouldn't fly, he knew because he had often tried to get them up and they had refused, and the train ride would have been much too tiring for them.

So he leaned casually against the rail and looked then at the faces of the waving crowd. He smiled because he was happy for the men with him. He knew how much it meant to them.

BUT THEN his face went taut, his eyes widened, he went stiff and stood up straight. What went on in the young lieutenant's mind for the next half hour? Even he wasn't sure.

As he said himself later "You were seeing a man in a state of shock."

Down there in the middle of the packed crowd along the dock he saw the tear-streaked face of his father and next to his father was his mother.

Both were smiling through the tears that wet their eager faces, and both were waving and calling his name above the din of the band noise.

"There he is! There he is! That's my boy up there!"

Mr. Kuzmeh laughed, glancing at the people around him. "That's Frank."

He repeated much too softly to be heard more than a few hundred yards away "Hello, Frank, Hello, Frank" . . . Photographers tried to take pictures of the Kuzmehs, but they were looking only one way—toward their son. The look on Frank's face was almost frightening. He appeared as though he had been drugged.

He stared at his mother and father from the rail of the ship in disbelief, hardly the trace of a smile on his lips.

Finally he waved, but woodenly.

THEN HE looked as though he were going to cry. He bit his under-lip and looked away towards the top of the ship, but when he looked down again he smiled, then started laughing and waving to his parents.

It was ten minutes before the ship came to a stop, the gangway was lowered, and the freed prisoners descended.

The father and son greeted one another in a tight embrace. Then the lieutenant hugged his mother and kissed her.

What those first words were that the three exchanged will never be recorded: They were in Polish, but the tears in their eyes were part of the universal language.

While the mother and son hugged amid a crowd of cheering and kissing and smiling men and women, the father, a short man who stared fascinatingly in the excitement, looked to another person in his party and said, "He's skinny."

The young lieutenant was skinny, but not so skinny as he had been a year ago when he was down to 130 pounds.

AFTER A two-hour stay, at a hospital in San Francisco, the young flyer was given a pass and told to report to Valley Forge Army hospital in Phoenixville. It was the first time during the whole day he had really smiled.

Back at the hotel room later, reunited with Capt. Joseph O'Connor of the Pottstown area with whom he had been a prisoner in the same camp for two years, the flyer told them the same story of suffering, cruelty, inhumanity, sickness and death that the captain

Police Committee Stand Backed By GOP Candidate Hartenstine

The Republican candidate for council's police committee in all problems relating to the operation and efficiency of the department.

John B. Hartenstine Jr., GOP opponent of Burgess William A. Griffith, Democratic incumbent, last night asserted, "When practical, sound recommendations of the police committee to improve the operation of the police will be put into effect 100 percent."

He added, "There's no sense in having a committee if you don't intend to work along with it."

Hartenstine's promise is the first made in the campaign by a leading candidate.

ago, but that's the last he's heard of it."

Other committee members, from time-to-time, have disgustedly criticized the Burgess "shelving" policy.

One officer hotly denied a claim by the Burgess and several police who benefit by all day work that the present schedule is in effect because the officers want it that way.

He challenged, "Let the Burgess poll all the men to see whether they would go for three, eight-hour shifts. Sure several of them don't want the schedule. But let him ask all of them."

Another officer cried, "Sure we say all night work as long as we have to work this graveyard shift. It's no good for a man's health or morale to have only two weeks of day work for every 10 weeks of night shift. Before you even get used to day work you have to go back on the night side. No wonder he says we want all night work."

"Let him make everybody take his crack at night work and he'll see who's for it and who's against it."

Police the past week favored the new salary ordinance passed by council and voiced no objections to the "no outside work" clause but they asserted the clause would not be necessary if the work schedule were divided into three, eight-hour shifts.

Officers charged the unequal work schedule was the biggest factor

High Holidays Close As Jews Anticipate Tabernacle Festival

With the blowing of the Shofar, ram's horn, shortly after sundown Saturday night, Rabbi Emil Schorsch, of Congregation Mercy and Truth Synagog, brought to a close on the local scene the high holidays of the Jewish New Year.

Although the observance of Yom Kippur, Day of Atonement, is now past, Jews of the world over have turned their thoughts to the observance of the Festival of Tabernacles which begins Wednesday at sundown.

The Festival of Tabernacles has two meanings.

One, an agricultural meaning or harvest festival, and the other, a religious meaning through which is related the wanderings of the children of Israel through the wilderness.

Dr. Schorsch said that during the observance, three important services will be held. On Thursday and Friday morning, services will begin at 9 o'clock.

The other service will be held on the final day of the observance, seven days later.

At sundown Wednesday a short service will introduce the holiday, beginning at 6:30 p. m.

During the Yom Kippur services, the Rev. H. G. Blatt served as cantor, while the Rev. E. Wishner, of Chester, assisted.

More Donations Push Prisoner Fund Over $1500

Pottstown's Prisoner of War fund, which united repatriates and their families on the Pacific coast, went over the $1500 mark yesterday.

The fund reached $1552.56, a remarkable total run up in 10 days. But it still is not enough to cover the expenses of the families flown to San Francisco. So please send in your contribution, or bring it to The Mercury.

If you think it's worthy, like a donor did yesterday, mail your check or money today. This donor said:

"God bless the boys and their families for the rest of their lives. They deserve it. Those more people will help to insure them how proud we are of them, for they gave all they had and more!"

ONE OF the most heart-warming contributions yesterday came from the Class of 1945, Pottstown High school, which was Lt. Frank Kuzmeh's class. Other contributions follow:

Three Chester County Men Killed When Car Plunges Off Road, Hurtles Against Trees and Bursts Into Flames

Three Chester county men were killed early yesterday morning when the car in which they were riding plunged off a road near Coatesville, struck two trees, and burst into flames.

The victims were Henry M. Welsh, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde M. Welsh, Glen Moore, Richard G. Smith, 27, and Aaron Taylor, 24, both of Brandamore, near Coatesville.

Coatesville State police said the accident occurred at 1:30 a. m. yesterday on the old Wilmington road, about five miles northwest of Coatesville.

Police said the car, owned and operated by Smith, went off the left side of the road while rounding a slight curve to the right. It struck one tree, glanced off a hunched on 50 feet more and crashed into a large walnut tree, which it split.

Smith was thrown from the car. Taylor was found partially out of the car, while Welsh was pinned inside.

The gas tank exploded when the vehicle struck the second tree, badly burning all three men.

After banner morning and afternoon sessions, things quieted down during Friday evening hearings.

Chief County Assessor Weldon W. Ring reported 14 protests were aired Friday night and 25 were heard Saturday morning.

He added, "There was no one out of line at the hearings. All complaints were registered courteously and intelligently."

Ring reported approximately 60 residents will be heard next Friday.

TODAY a few East Vincent township property owners will ask for assessment adjustments.

The board began hearings with a list of 800 protests. Approximately 250 remain.

Two hundred and fifty of Norco's estimated 1300 property owners appealed assessments.

'Shoebe-Dobe' Flees After Wounding Man With Shotgun Blast

If you know the whereabouts of "Shoebe-dobe" call Pottstown police.

He's wanted for aggravated assault and battery with intent to kill.

There's a warrant out for his arrest and police have been on the lookout for the former Chattanooga, Tenn., resident over the weekend.

It all happened Saturday night when the brothers Selma "Nob" Reddick and Hilton Reddick were holding a "bull" session in front of 645 Water street.

Shoebe-dobe, who later was identified by Motor Patrolman Stanley Borowy as Richmond Moore Jr., allegedly passed the Reddicks in his 1949 pickup truck.

The suspect turned around and jumped out of the truck yelling, "Do you want to fight now, Nob?" and blazed away with one shot from a single barrel 12-gauge shotgun.

NOB WAS rushed to Memorial hospital, where he was treated for wounds of three fingers of the right hand and the middle finger of the left hand.

Hospital authorities called borough hall at 8:15 o'clock, approximately 40 minutes after the shooting took place. Borowy then began his investigation, but Shoebe-dobe had made good his escape.

Police confiscated the gun and impounded the truck.

The truck license was registered at 612 Walnut street, but police reported Moore had a room in the Hotel James, 643 Lincoln avenue.

They believe he may be on his way to Tennessee.

Reddick was discharged after treatment.

Fire Company Tries Quelling Coal Blaze

The Monarch Fire company of Monocacy, spent about five hours yesterday in a try to extinguish an area of coke and soft coal which has been burning along the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks in West Monocacy for about a week.

Fire Chief Ray Boalton reported the company began operations about 9:30 a. m. and worked until 3 p. m. The firemen worked in conjunction with a railroad crew operating a crane.

Boalton said the firemen laid about 2400 feet of hose to get water from Six Penny creek. They doused the smoldering earth as the crane dug it up and turned it over.

The chief reported the men worked over an area about 150 feet long, 40 feet wide and 15 feet deep. It is located in West Monocacy running along Route 83 and the Pennsylvania tracks.

Boalton said, "We've apparently put it out now, but you can't tell, it may start up again in about a week."

The cause of the fire is unknown.

Today's forecast calls for much of the same weather with a little less hope for the Monday wash-scattered showers being predicted during most of the day.

Vishinsky Speech on Russian Policy Seen as Delaying Peace Conference

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Sept. 20 (AP)—Andrei Vishinsky's speech on Russian policy here tomorrow is certain to touch off new wrangling over the Korean peace conference.

Revival of the dispute practically kills any chance for the conference to get started Oct. 15, as requested by the UN side, and threatens the chances for the conference to begin by Oct. 28, the time limit set for it in the Korean armistice agreement.

Even if the UN assembly steering committee turns down Vishinsky's request to open the "round table" conference to general debate, Vishinsky has

EX-BOARD CHIEF FLAYS EMBARGO ON RED TRADE

Follows Attlee Speech Criticizing US Policy

FLEETWOOD, England, Sept. 20 (AP)—Harold Wilson, president of the board of trade in Britain's former Labor Government, called today for greater East-West trade now that the fighting in Korea has ended.

"The Soviet Union has shown a clear desire for an extension of trade with the West," Wilson declared.

His speech followed that of Clement Attlee, former Labor prime minister, yesterday criticizing US foreign policy. The United States has been firm in pressing for embargoes to Communist countries on strategic materials.

Attlee's speech hit at the United States for working to keep India out of a Korean peace conference. Attlee called also for the seating of Red China in the United Nations when Peiping ceases supporting aggression.

THE BOARD OF TRADE in the British Government is comparable to the US department of commerce. Wilson's speech dealt entirely with economic policy.

He attacked the embargo on exports to Communist China which he said prevented even medicine reaching the Reds.

Wilson claimed that this was "not only economic and military nonsense, but morally indefensible." He said the general controls over exports to Eastern Europe and the Eastern world as a whole reflected the attitudes of a period of increasing tension not of a world striving for peaceful co-existence.

Bachelors, Spinsters From 7 Nations Dance Until Wee Hours at Gathering

GREVENBICHT, The Netherlands, Sept. 20 (AP)—Bachelors and spinsters from seven nations danced together until the wee hours today in single bliss—many of them hoping secretly to find a mate.

Mayor Louis Corten told the some 700 men and women of all ages who came yesterday for the three-day bachelors' conference it was "not meant to be a mating market—but we hope for the best."

Sleepy little Grevenbicht on the banks of the Meuse river has never had so many visitors from outside in all its years of early retiring and early rising.

And that was exactly what Gerar Grein, 36 and single, had in mind when he thought up the idea: Raise Grevenbicht—and lonely men and women—out of oblivion.

There also was a two-hour lecture and film last night on "The Bachelor in European Folklore."

Through all this, the atmosphere remained understandingly cool. The men and women, still wary, cast only hesitant glances at each other and said little.

Things thawed out, however, when the dancing started. After midnight little Grevenbicht still was awake and fairly rocking with the sound of a dozen different bands playing, among other things, a song—specially composed for the conference.

It was a new single man's "International," it's title: "Bachelors of the World Unite."

It wasn't clear whether those who sang loudest hoped to unite for the promotion of single bliss—or in matrimony.

Cloth Manufacturer Holds Lunch for Namesakes

LES BUILLERS DE BOUFFERE, France, Sept. 20 (AP)—Emile Gauvrit, 53, well-to-do cloth manufacturer, today had lunch with 271 other Gauvrits, because it seemed like a good idea.

He invited all the "Gauvrits" in the world, but the longest trip made by a Gauvrit to get here was from Brussels.

The first aday started out rather solemnly. The mayor and town council, formally attired in morning pants, cutaways and top hats, welcomed the big aggregation of single men and women.

They ranged from 21 to 75, and the spinsters held a slight majority. They came from Holland, Britain, Belgium, France, Germany and Luxembourg.

Ostensibly they came to confer on how they lived alone and liked it. But the theme had a slightly hollow ring, and some were downright frank about how they didn't like and wanted

AFL LEADERS SEEK TO EXPEL DOCK WORKERS

George Meany Announces 'Get Tough' Decision After Meeting

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20 (AP)—American Federation of Labor leaders decided today to seek expulsion of the crime-tainted International Longshoremen's association.

Plans for a new dock workers' affiliate will be announced if delegates to the AFL convention, which opens here tomorrow, approve their officers' recommendation.

George Meany, AFL president, announced the decision after a meeting of the union's executive council.

The council voted in August to recommend the ILA's suspension from AFL membership, but Meany said the council decided on the stronger course of expulsion because the ILA has failed to accomplish any "clean up."

The ILA has been under sharp attack from crime investigators for harboring criminal elements on New York and New Jersey piers.

MEANY SAID that the AFL ordered the ILA eight months ago to rid itself of criminal elements but the union has failed to take satisfactory action.

"We've seen no action to indicate they are going to clean-up the situation themselves," Meany told reporters.

He said that to the contrary the union had pledged some time ago to weed out questionable officials but had failed to do so.

Meany said that until such time as the delegates may approve their officers' recommendation to oust the ILA, the Longshoremen's union will be entitled to have its delegates sit at the convention.

Meany also said that if the convention votes the ILA's ouster, AFL leaders will announce a plan for establishing a new union set-up to keep the bulk of ILA's members within the AFL under new leaders.

The ILA has been affiliated with the AFL since 1893.

Meany said that the AFL leadership's tough action on the ILA could be taken as an indication of how the AFL will deal in the future with any union whose leadership gets involved with gangsters and hoodlums.

PILOT NATIONALITY SECRET Fifth Air Force Announces MIG Jet Lands at Kimpo Airfield Near Seoul

SEOUL, Monday, Sept. 21 (AP)—A Russian-built MIG-15 jet roared unheralded out of the Communist North today and swept to a graceful landing at a US jet base 15 miles northwest of Seoul.

American airmen clustered around the pilot as he stepped down from the MIG but he was rushed into headquarters for questioning.

A Fifth Air Force officer said the pilot's nationality "could not be disclosed 'at this time' but 'he is not a North Korean.'"

The spokesman said the pilot "will not be interviewed or identified for fear of retaliation."

A tight security was clamped around the base. Special officers guarded all entrances. Everyone entering or leaving was checked. No visitors were permitted.

Lt. Gen. Samuel Anderson, Fifth Air Force commander, rushed to the airfield at Kimpo, home base for the sleek American Sabre jets which tangled with MIGs throughout the war in flashing battles over North Korea.

"The pilot is now under interrogation by Air Force intelligence officers," the spokesman said.

HIS PLANE was placed in a hangar by itself. A cordon of US air police armed with .45 caliber pistols guarded it.

During the last days of the Korean war, Gen. Mark Clark offered $100,000 to the first Communist pilot to land a MIG in Allied territory in Korea. The offer was beamed to North Korea and Manchuria by radio for days but there were no takers.

TWO POLISH fliers landed a MIG several months ago on the Danish island of Bornholm in the Baltic sea. The two, Lt. Franciszek Jarecki, 21, and Lt. Zdzislaw Jazwinski, 22, were granted political asylum in the United States.

It was a bright, sunny day with only wisps of clouds in the blue sky when the MIG roared south out of North Korea.

The Fifth Air Force spokesman said the pilot had black hair.

He said correspondents would not be permitted to interview the pilot until he had been cleared by the Air Force and "indicates he wishes an interview."

Photographs of the plane would be permitted, he said, provided they did not show markings which would indicate the plane's Red flight unit.

An air force officer at Kimpo, an Allied jet base about 15 miles northwest of Seoul, said the MIG made a "very good landing."

It "caught us by surprise," he added. But by the time the plane taxied back up the runway, a "big crowd" had rushed out to meet the pilot. He was described as short and wore a flying suit.

Democrat Chairman Suggests Prizes Be Given Probers Who Do 'Best Job'

CHICAGO, Sept. 20 (AP)—Stephen A. Mitchell, chairman of the Democratic national committee, today suggested that prizes be awarded to members of Congressional committees who "do the best job."

Mitchell was asked if Democrats should propose legislation to safeguard the rights of citizens who appear before Congressional committees.

"There is room for a great deal of improvement," Mitchell replied. "The problem, in part, is one for the press and public."

He suggested creation of "something like the Pulitzer prize committee" to pass out honors to members of Congressional committees "who do the best job."

Pulitzer prizes are awarded annually for outstanding accomplishments in journalism, literature, music and art.

Mitchell, in response to a query about Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.), head of the Senate Investigations subcommittee, commented: "Senator McCarthy is the Republicans' problem."

The Democratic chairman also was asked how he could "do business" with Governors Byrnes of South Carolina and

STEPHEN MITCHELL

Talmadge of Georgia and Senator McCarran of Nevada, all Democrats.

"I don't do business with Byrnes," he replied.

He added that he had no difficulties with McCarran, and that he has "very satisfactory relations" with Talmadge.

SENATE SOURCE INDICATES BERIA IS IN HIDING

Deposed Police Chief Reportedly Escaped From Russia

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—A high Senate source said today Senate investigators are convinced that Lavrenty Beria, deposed czar of the Soviet secret police, has escaped from Russia and is hiding, in terror of his life, in a neutral European country.

An equally high source in another department of the Government was deeply skeptical of the report, however, saying the chances of Beria's having broken through the Iron Curtain were "one in a million."

Both sources asked to remain unidentified at this stage of the case.

The Senate source said the mysterious fugitive has been contacted by agents of the Senate Investigations subcommittee, that he has asked for political asylum in the United States and is willing to trade the Kremlin's secrets for a refuge from Red assassins.

"Personally, I would not be at all surprised if it developed that the man is Beria, that he finds at least a temporary haven in this country, and that he gives us a great deal of valuable information—if he can be kept alive," this source told a reporter.

Elsewhere, informed American officials said they knew nothing at the present time which leads them to believe that Beria has managed to get out of Russia. But there is no doubt that this Government would be glad to receive any man who possesses as many Communist secrets as Beria.

Beria was last seen in public May 1 at the May Day celebration in Moscow, as far as American officials know. Soviet Premier Malenkov denounced him as a traitor July 9 and ousted him from his posts as home minister and first deputy chairman of the council of ministers.

Luther Leaguers Rededicate Themselves to God

200 Members Attend Indoor Service Sponsored by 4 Pottstown Groups

The weather failed to dampen the spirits of some 200 Luther league members from the Pottstown area early last night as they prepared for a rededication service in observance of Youth Sunday.

Although the weather did force them to shift their meeting place from Manatwain park to the Transfiguration Lutheran church, the program went on as planned.

The rededication service was sponsored by four Luther leagues of Pottstown Lutheran churches.

Opening the worship was a song service under the direction of Mrs. Sheila Righthour, of St. John's Lutheran church, South Pottstown.

Leading the worship service was Gerry Nevenesch, of Grace Lutheran church, while Raymond Peterson, of Transfiguration, led the candlelight rededication service.

During this portion of the service, representatives from the four sponsoring churches, St. John's, Transfiguration, Grace and Emmanuel, passed the light from the altar to the Luther league members assembled.

Upon receiving the light each then proceeded to rededicate themselves to their God and faith.

Climaxing the service was an address by the Rev. Arnold F. Keller Jr., pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, Allentown.

Speaking on the theme of rededication the Rev. Keller pointed out that God works through individuals, and the contact is made through the sacrament of baptism and later through confirmation.

He reminded the group that the vows must be repeated to remind the individual of their effectiveness.

Daily repetition brings the person closer to the promise that he has made, the Rev. Keller said.

He explained that in baptism the sponsors take the vows for the individual. In confirmation, the individual takes the vows himself, and now at the service, they rededicated themselves.

Following the service, the representatives from the various leagues returned to the parish house where games and entertainment were conducted.

ST. JOHN'S Lutheran league put on an alphabet elimination game, while Transfiguration gave a comedy skit.

Those taking part in the Transfiguration skit were: Ray Peterson, Bruce Bauer, Robert Gray, Richard Seidel and Edward Gible.

Area churches represented other than those already mentioned were: St. James and St. Peter's, of Stowe.

Robert Scheffey, adviser to the Transfiguration Lutheran league, also served as adviser to the planning committee.

The committee was composed of: Gene Fritz, Emmanuel; Raymond Peterson, Transfiguration; June Houck, Grace, and Ruth Gearhart, St. John's Lutheran.

Church Observes Its Largest Home Festival in History

The largest Harvest Home festival ever held in Emmanuel Lutheran church was observed yesterday morning.

As 657 parishioners listened, the Rev. Dr. Luther A. Krouse delivered a sermon on "The Fruit of the Spirit."

The Rev. Krouse said, "Never have we had so many mouths to feed here in America and never have we had so much food. Long ago God promised that there would always be a seed-time and a harvest, and God has never gone back on His promise."

The altar and the chancel of the church were decorated with the fruits of the field against a background of cornstalks and sheaves of wheat.

More than 700 cans of fruits and vegetables, in addition to bags of sugar and flour and other items, were brought to the church. After the service all the food was taken to the Good Shepherd Home in Allentown.

The Rev. William F. Wefer, executive director of the Philadelphia Presbytery, was the guest minister at the First Presbyterian church yesterday.

At Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church, the Rev. John B. Frantz, pastor, the carillon bells are being installed and will be dedicated next Sunday.

Installation of the bells will serve as a memorial to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. David T. Miller.

Hugh Frame, the officially elected lay member of Baltzell Memorial church, and the Rev. John L. Smoker, pastor, will represent the congregation at the annual conference at the Otterbein church, Harrisburg, tomorrow through Thursday.

Harvest Home was observed at St. James Lutheran church yesterday with the Rev. Edward S. Horn, pastor, delivering a sermon entitled, "Harvest Mercies."

Later in the day members of the congregation made a pilgrimage to the Germantown Home in Philadelphia.

Yesterday's bulletins at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church were sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kepner in loving memory of their parents.

Whitehead, June Coburn and Harriet Weist.

Verna Detwiler, of Philadelphia, was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Godshall.

Tillie Lacher, of Pittsburgh, was a weekend guest of Mrs. Adelaide Bower, Miss Lacher and Mrs. Bower, accompanied by Verna Lacher, of Philadelphia, and Jane Young and Estelle Bower, of Collegeville, spent a day in Atlantic City.

Five Holy Name Societies Discuss Plans for Religious Rally Oct. 11

Approximately 200 members of Holy Name societies in the Pottstown area will be asked to make a pilgrimage to Philadelphia Oct. 11 for a gigantic religious rally sponsored by the Holy Name Union of the Philadelphia archdiocese.

The figure was estimated yesterday afternoon when representatives of five Holy Name societies gathered to discuss the rally at St. Aloysius Catholic church school cafeteria.

The group will leave Pottstown at 4 p. m. Oct. 11 by bus to take part in a massive procession and attend an open air pontifical mass.

The Rev. Michael Leo Walsh, spiritual adviser of the Holy Name society at St. Aloysius church, said last night that adequate parking facilities are available at the rear of the church school for anyone wishing to make the trip.

BEFORE the next meeting members of the representative body, which officially adopted the Pottstown Holy Name Union as its title, will contact their respective members to see who will journey to the rally.

Representatives will meet again Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in school cafeteria.

Those present last night were: Daniel G. Churach, George J. Lardenski and Joseph Hassar, St. John's Catholic church of the Greek Rite; Angelo Palladino, St. Gabriel's church, Stowe.

Also, Frank J. Kairo, St. Peter's church; Eugene Stofko, Holy Trinity Catholic church, and Charles Palladino, William Palladino, William J. Roberts, Stephen Vagasky and Thomas E. Kassel, all of St. Aloysius church.

Charles Palladino served as chairman during the session, while Father Walsh presided.

GRANITE MARKER IS UNVEILED

Fixture Commemorates Razed Schwenkfelder Church

A 2800-pound granite marker, commemorating the recently-razed Worcester Schwenkfelder church, was unveiled yesterday afternoon by members of the Central Schwenkfelder church.

The marker, carved in the form of a pulpit, stands where the original church pulpit once stood, and will serve as a permanent fixture.

Unveiling ceremonies were conducted by Warren S. Kriebel, church moderator, and Allen Kriebel, both of Lansdale, Pa.

Delivering a short spiritual message to more than 200 persons assembled was the Rev. Harvey K. Heebner, pastor of the Philadelphia Schwenkfelder church, who attended the Worcester Sunday school and church in his youth.

ANOTHER brief message on the historical background of the church was offered by Dr. E. E. S. Johnson, Chapel, who is a Schwenkfelder historian.

The three-foot four-inch stone is four-sided with each side serving as a memento to events that have developed since the church was founded in 1882.

On the one side are carved replicas of the two previous churches that stood there; the other side lists the principal church events; on the third side is the Schwenkfelder coat of arms and opposite from that is a brief dedication verse in memory of those who worshipped in the churches.

Luther Leaguers Rededicate Themselves to God

200 Members Attend Indoor Service Sponsored by 4 Pottstown Groups

The weather failed to dampen the spirits of some 200 Luther league members from the Pottstown area early last night as they gathered for a rededication service in observance of Youth Sunday.

Although the weather did force them to shift their meeting place from Manatwamy park to the Transfiguration Lutheran church, the program went on as planned.

The rededication service was sponsored by four Luther leagues of Pottstown Lutheran churches.

Opening the worship was a song service under the direction of Mrs. Sheila Rightmire, of St. John's Lutheran church, South Pottstown. Leading the worship service was Gerry Nevenesch, of Grace Lutheran church, while Raymond Peterson, of Transfiguration, led the candlelight rededication service.

DURING this portion of the service, representatives from the four sponsoring churches, St. John's, Transfiguration, Grace and Emmanuel, passed the light from the altar to the Luther league members assembled.

Upon receiving the light each then proceeded to rededicate themselves to their God and faith.

Climaxing the service was an address by the Rev. Arnold F. Keller Jr., pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, Allentown.

Speaking on the theme of rededication the Rev. Keller pointed out that God works through individuals.

He reminded the group that the vows must be repeated to remind the individual of their effectiveness. Daily repetition brings the person closer to the promise that he has made, the Rev. Keller said.

He explained that in baptism the individual takes the vows himself, and now at the service, they rededicated themselves.

Following the service, the representatives from the various leagues returned to the parish house where games and entertainment were conducted.

ST. JOHN'S Luther league put on an alphabet elimination game, while Transfiguration gave a comedy skit.

Those taking part in the Transfiguration skit were: Ray Peterson, Bruce Bauer, Robert Gray, Richard Seidel and Edward Gible. Area churches represented other than those already mentioned were: St. James and St. Peter's, of Stowe.

Robert Scheffey, adviser to the Transfiguration Luther league, also served as adviser to the planning committee.

The committee was composed of: Gene Fritz, Emmanuel; Raymond Peterson, Transfiguration; June Houck, Grace, and Ruth Gearhart, St. John's Lutheran.

The largest Harvest Home festival ever held in Emmanuel Lutheran church was observed yesterday morning.

As 657 parishioners listened, the Rev. Dr. Luther A. Krouse delivered a sermon on "The Fruit of the Spirit."

The Rev. Krouse said, "Never have we had so many mouths to feed here in America and never have we had so much food. Long ago God promised that there would always be a seed-time and a harvest, and God has never gone back on His promise."

The altar and the chancel of the church were decorated with the fruits of the field against a background of cornstalks and sheaves of wheat.

More than 700 cans of fruits and vegetables, in addition to bags of sugar and flour and other items, were brought to the church. After the service all the food was taken to the Good Shepherd Home in Allentown.

The Rev. William F. Wefer, executive director of the Philadelphia Presbytery, was the guest minister at the First Presbyterian church yesterday.

At Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church, the Rev. John B. Frantz, pastor, the carillon bells are being installed and will be dedicated next Sunday.

Five Holy Name Societies Discuss Plans for Religious Rally Oct. 11

Approximately 200 members of Holy Name societies in the Pottstown area will be asked to make a pilgrimage to Philadelphia Oct. 11 for a gigantic religious rally sponsored by the Holy Name Union of the Philadelphia archdiocese.

The figure was estimated yesterday afternoon when representatives of five Holy Name societies gathered to discuss the rally at St. Aloysius Catholic church school cafeteria.

The group will leave Pottstown at 4 p. m. Oct. 11 by bus to take part in a massive procession and attend an open air pontifical mass.

The Rev. Michael Loo Walsh, spiritual adviser of the Holy Name society at St. Aloysius church, said last night that adequate parking facilities are available at the rear of the church school for anyone wishing to make the trip.

BEFORE the next meeting members of the representative body, which officially adopted the Pottstown Holy Name Union as its title.

Representatives will meet again Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in school cafeteria.

Those present last night were: Daniel G. Churach, George J. Lardenski and Joseph Hassar, St. John's Catholic church of the Greek Rite; Angelo Palladino, St. Ga-Aloysius Catholic church school cafeteria.

Also, Frank J. Kairo, St. Peter's church; Eugene Stofko, Holy Trinity Catholic church, and Charles Palladino, William Palladino, William J. Roberts, Stephen Vagasky and Thomas E. Kassel, all of St. Aloysius church.

Charles Palladino served as chairman during the session, while Father Walsh presided.

Unveiling ceremonies were conducted by Warren S. Kriebel, church moderator, and Al-Kriebel, both of Lansdale RD 2.

Delivering a short spiritual message to more than 200 persons assembled was the Rev. Harvey K. Heebner, pastor of the Philadelphia Schwenkfelder church, who attended the Worcester Sunday school and church in his youth.

ANOTHER brief message on the historical background of the church was offered by Dr. E. E. S. Johnson, Chapel, who is a Schwenkfelder historian.

The three-foot four-inch stone is four-sided with each side serving as a memento to events that have developed since the church was founded in 1882.

On the one side are carved replicas of the two previous churches that stood there; the other side lists the principal church events; on the third side is the Schwenkfelder coat of arms and opposite from that is a brief dedication verse in memory of those who worshipped in the churches.

It Blesseth Both

MERCURY readers who studied Saturday's Page One pictures of Capt. Joseph L. O'Connor's homecoming from three years of torture in a Chinese communist prison camp, certainly must have felt well rewarded for having made possible this reunion.

The poignant scene of little, seven-year-old Lee Ann O'Connor rushing up a plane ramp in California to greet her happily smiling daddy whom she hadn't seen in more than three years was a heart-tugging picture that will live in memory.

The throat-grIPPING tableau of Mrs. Marjorie O'Connor crushing the captain in her arms, bussing him warmly, while his mother, Mrs. Thomas W. O'Connor awaits her chance for a welcome hug, kiss and hug, was another picture worthy of preservation in albums of human emotion.

Every Mercury reader who contributed to the Prisoner of War Fund to make possible the trip of the O'Connors to San Francisco must have swelled with pride.

Every donor must have felt elated to have contributed so much to the happiness of families that suffered through long, weary years of uncertainty, of fears, of disappointments.

Yesterday the scenes were to have been repeated. For then another family, the John Kuzmecs of Gilbertsville, were to have been on a San Francisco dock when their former prisoner of war son, Lt. Frank, arrived.

To Mr. and Mrs. Kuzmecz, who are well over 60, this must have been one of the most glorious days in their lives. They had had their share of joys and sorrows in this world. But this was the golden reward of life.

They themselves had fled Russian tyranny early in the century to come to America, their land of opportunity and freedom. The couple met on American soil, married and raised a large family of real Americans.

The father worked hard all his life. The mother was busy with her brood. Neither found America's streets lined with gold, but their happiness was in their large family.

Three of their daughters showed intense patriotism by joining the Women's Army corps in World War II. Their youngest son, Frank became an aviator, fought through that terrible European conflict. The emigrant couple was proud, but their heartaches were many.

Then came the Korean war and Frank was recalled to duty. The pangs of loneliness and fear came again, for Frank was the baby of the family, and he may have been a little closer to the aging couple.

Darkness settled on the Gilbertsville home of the Kuzmecs when Frank was shot down behind the lines. That announcement shocked the parents. They got a little relief when the government told them Frank was taken a prisoner of war.

Quick US Appropriation Is Surprise to France

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 — President Eisenhower's decision to finance almost the total cost of the French defense of Indo-China against Chinese and native Communists will face severe criticism on Capitol Hill unless the bargain requires that Paris abandon oppressive colonial practices and ratify promptly the treaty for formation of a European defense army.

It is understood that these provisions are included in unpublished details of this new alliance against Russia.

The French themselves were surprised at the speed with which the National Security council approved their request for an additional $385,000,000 for Indo-China.

Washington had also anticipated delay, if only for bargaining purposes. Congress has already appropriated $400,000,000 for Indo-China, with another $85,000,000 for the defense of continental France.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS: Two new developments apparently forced quick action on both sides. The first was consummation of the Korean truce, which will permit Mao Tse-tung to ship more weapons and supplies, possibly troops, to the guerrillas in Southeast Asia. Having warned that such action would provoke retaliation by the United States, Secretary Dulles felt compelled to show Mao that he meant business.

The other factor was Konrad Adenauer's overwhelming victory in the German elections, and his determination to obtain immediate ratification of the European Defense Treaty. Two French Governments have refused to submit the treaty to Parliament for consideration because of their ancient fear of the Germans. Despite Adenauer's demonstrated friendship to the West, they distrust his people.

But the anti-Russian nature of the German Chancellor's re-election provided us with pressure to apply against Paris. Unless Premier Joseph Laniel would cooperate with us in rearming Europe, a keystone of our foreign policy, we would not cooperate with him in Indo-China. Instead, we would rely on Germany as our principal continental ally, which would be a severe thrust at French pride and security.

But Laniel, who is more of a realist than his predecessors, also had strong talking points in the diplomatic exchange. He intimated that he might acquiesce in the demand of French groups for complete withdrawal from Indo-China. That would give the Reds control of Asia's rice bowl. It would place the Communists in a flanking position vis-a-vis India, Thailand, Burma, Malaya, Australia, New Zealand, Japan and the Philippines. Our whole defense in that area would crumble.

NATIVES' WRETCHED LOT: An equally important reform in Indo-China, as Washington realizes, is the grant of full independence to the three states of the French Union—Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam. Despite French demurrers, the natives have been kept in complete economic slavery. Their lot is wretched, with hunger, illness and poverty as daily fare.

Their hatred of the French accounts for the successes of Ho Chi Minh's small guerrilla forces in the eight-year war.

"Dr. Crane, we have three boys aged 7, 9 and 10½," she told me.

"And since I read your column faithfully, I was interested in your recent advice to parents about buying an old typewriter."

"So I got one for their birthdays. And they have been fascinated by it. I have been teaching them the touch system."

"The youngest and the oldest are especially enthusiastic. Why, our 7-year-old spent three solid hours the other day practicing the first lesson in my old college typing book."

"He wouldn't even stop to watch television! And our 10½ year-old sometimes gets up extra early in the morning to practice his typing before he leaves for school."

"So this typewriter has served not only as a stimulating birthday gift, but is helping them in their lessons, too."

A TYPEWRITER is an ideal gift for children. It serves as a mental plaything.

But it also has valuable by-products of an educational sort. For when children use a typewriter they pay more attention to the internal make-up of words. So it improves their spelling.

Even if they use the "hunt and peck" method, which I employ in writing these daily Case Records, they are more likely to notice that the letter "i" precedes the "e" in "believe" but is reversed in "receive."

Notice how Mrs. Gomes' 7-year-old actually worked for three solid hours at the typewriter. But he thought it was fun.

For the difference between "work" and "play" is chiefly our mental attitude. If we like a job and work at it by preference, then that is play.

But if we're forced to labor at it, and meanwhile maintain a protest in our mind against such effort, then that is work.

TYPEWRITERS make ideal gifts, not only for children but for clergymen, school teachers and contest fans.

Moreover, when business firms try to trade-in their office typewriters on new models, they receive only $15 to $25. Yet those typewriters are easily worth $50 to $75 to the average person who uses one only moderately.

So why don't you businessmen give your used typewriters to clergymen or Sunday school teachers in your area. Or parcel them out to good workers who have children.

Truckers Okay

To the Editor: Who ever said trucks are a menace to our highways?

The way I see it, the only guys who gripe about the trucks are those who tried tangling with them at one time or another.

I personally feel truck drivers are far more courteous on the roads than many automobile drivers. Furthermore, I feel they are a lot more cautious.

For example, night driving. When moving along a highway at night and traffic is coming toward you, nine chances out of ten, the truck drivers dim their lights long before you get close to them. But when it comes to automobiles, the odds are nine chances out of ten that they won't dim their lights.

Another point I would like to bring out is passing. In practically every case, truck drivers sound their horns. How many car operators share this little act of courtesy when moving along.

These guys and gals who are harping all the time about trucks and driving conditions had better take inventory of themselves first and then sound off.

It Blesseth Both

MERCURY readers who studied Saturday's
Page One pictures of Capt. Joseph L.
O'Connor's homecoming from three years of torture in a Chinese communist prison camp, certainly must have felt rewarded for having made possible this reunion.

The poignant scene of little, seven-year-old Lee Ann O'Connor rushing up a plane ramp in California to greet her happily smiling daddy who she hadn't seen in more than three years was a heart-tugging picture that will live in memory.

The throat-grIPPING tableau of Mrs.
Marjorie O'Connor crushing the captain in her arms, kissing him warmly, while his mother, Mrs. Thomas W. O'Connor awaits her chance for a welcome hug, kiss and hug, was another picture worthy of preservation in albums of human emotion.

Every Mercury reader who contributed to the Prisoner of War Fund to make possible the trip of the O'Connors to San Francisco must have swelled with pride.

Every donor must have felt elated to have contributed so much to the happiness of families that suffered through long, weary years of uncertainty, of fears, of disappointments.

Yesterday the scenes were to have been repeated. For then another family, the John Kuzmecs of Gilbertsville, were to have been on a San Francisco dock when their former prisoner of war son, Lt. Frank, arrived.

To Mr. and Mrs. Kuzmecs, who are well over 60, this must have been one of the most glorious days in their lives. They had had their share of joys and sorrows in this world.
But this was the golden reward of life.

They themselves had fled Russian tyranny early in the century to come to America, their land of opportunity and freedom. The couple met on American soil, married and raised a large family of real Americans.

The father worked hard all his life.
The mother was busy with her brood. Neither found America's streets lined with gold, but their happiness was in their large family.

Three of their daughters showed intense patriotism by joining the Women's Army corps in World War II. Their youngest son, Frank became an aviator, fought through that terrible European conflict. The emigrant couple was proud, but their heartaches were many.

Then came the Korean war and Frank was recalled to duty. The pangs of loneliness and fear came again, for Frank was the baby of the family, and he may have been a little closer to the aging couple.

Darkness settled on the Gilbertsville home of the Kuzmecs when Frank was shot down behind the lines. That announcement shocked the parents. They got a little relief when the government told them Frank was taken a prisoner of war.

At least he was uninjured. Father Kuzmecs said he never slept a full night after that news. "I always had bad dreams." But he daily labored at Spicer's, looking forward to that day when he'd be reunited with his beloved son.

Yesterday was zero hour for Operation Reunion. The Kuzmecs were on the San Francisco wharf, thanks to you Mercury readers, when Lieutenant Frank strode down the gangplank. He didn't know Mom and Pop were to be there.

So you generous donors to the Prisoner of War fund may conjure up the scene at that homecoming. You may feel the tears course down your cheeks, just as the tears of joy welled into the eyes of this grateful Pottstown area couple. You may feel the heartbeats, the crushing embraces that were enacted 3000 miles away.

You Mercury readers who made possible this great adventure, one that never will be forgotten by the principal actors in the drama, and possibly never by the day.

Your generosity surely blessed those who gave and those who received.

The Mercury knows the O'Connors and the Kuzmecs would like to thank each donor individually. That would be impossible. But
The Mercury knows how thankful they are.
So The Mercury adds this thanks to a generous community that surely will be blessed for its love for its fellowman.

Surely Pottstown has been good to making happy their neighbors.

But Laniel, who is more of a realist

Their hatred of the French accounts for the successes of Ho Chi Minh's small guerrilla forces in the eight-year war.

JOHN DANIEL
and his determination to obtain immediate ratification of the European Defense Treaty. Two French Governments have refused to submit the treaty to Parliament for consideration because of their ancient fear of the Germans. Despite Adenauer's demonstrated friendship to the West, they distrust his people.

But the anti-Russian nature of the German Chancellor's re-election provided us with pressure to apply against Paris. Unless Premier Joeseph Laniel would cooperate with us in rearming Europe, a keystone of our foreign policy, we would not cooperate with him in Indo-China. Instead, we would rely on Germany as our principal continental ally, which would be a severe thrust at French pride and security.

But Laniel, who is more of a realist than his predecessors, also had strong talking points in the diplomatic exchange. He intimated that he might acquiesce in the demand of French groups for complete withdrawal from Indo-China. That would give the Reds control of Asia's rice bowl. It would place the Communists in a flanking position visa-vis India, Thailand, Burma, Malaya, Australia, New Zealand, Japan and the Philippines. Our whole defense in that area would crumble.

NATIVES' WRETCHED LOT: An equally important reform in Indo-China, as Washington realizes, is the grant of full independence to the three states of the French Union—Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam. Despite French demurrers, the natives have been kept in complete economic slavery. Their lot is wretched, with hunger, illness and poverty as daily fare.

Their hatred of the French accounts
for the successes of Ho Chi Minh's small
guerrilla forces in the eight-year war.

Truckers Okay

To the Editor: Who ever said trucks are a menace to our highways?

The way I see it, the only guys who gripe about the trucks are those who tried tangling with them at one time or another.

I personally feel truck drivers are far more courteous on the roads than many automobile drivers. Furthermore, I feel they are a lot more cautious.

For example, night driving. When moving along a highway at night and traffic is coming toward you, nine chances out of ten, the truck drivers dim their lights long before you get close to them. But when it comes to automobiles, the odds are nine chances out of ten that they won't dim their lights.

Another point I would like to bring out is passing. In practically every case, truck drivers sound their horns. How many car operators share this little act of courtesy when moving along.

These guys and gals who are harping all the time about trucks and driving conditions had better take inventory of themselves first and then sound off.

"CALLING MR. DIOR"

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 20 — Clark

YOU CAN REST ASSURED—
That's what Capt. Joseph L. O'Connor seems to be telling Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kuzmeh, when they asked him news of their son, Frank, before his arrival in the United States yesterday.

O'Connor and Kuzmeh were in the same Communist prisoner of war prison camp, Camp 2, for more than a year.

Lieut. Kuzmeh arrived yesterday aboard the transport, Gen. A. W. Brewster. Capt. O'Connor arrived by air Friday.

The girl beside Capt. O'Connor is his daughter, Lee Ann, 7. The group is conferring in the Hotel Alexander Hamilton, San Francisco.

FALSE TEETH
That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little PASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get PASTEETH at any drug store.

GOP Leadership Is Blasted Here By Congressman

Jabbing at GOP national leadership, Democratic Congressman George M. Rhodes, Reading, yesterday told members of Doehler-Jarvis Local 1056, United Auto Workers (CIO), the destinies of America today are being decided by a "coalition" government.

The fiery Berks county congressman charged the Republicans are shifting the burden of government from those "best able" to pay to those "least able" to pay.

He asserted the GOP tax program follows the same philosophy. Rhodes illustrated this claim by pointing to increased pressures in the Nation's capital among the "conservative" elements for a national sales tax.

He singled out the Republican trend toward increasing the national debt and the increase in interest rates on the national debt alone is costing twice as much as the nation's welfare program.

He said the Republicans had crippled the welfare program by cutting appropriations.

Highway Traffic Slows After Truck Turns Over

A 1941 stake truck, bearing a New Jersey license tag, turned over on Route 73, a half mile west of Hickory park last night.

Traffic clogged the busy highway before investigating State troopers of the Jeffersonville barracks arrived on the scene.

The truck, occupied by a mother and father and two small children was towed away from car-crowded highway to a Gilbertsville garage.

'Mose' Moore Wanted In Connection With Hit-Run Case

State police last night were reported looking for Norman "Mose" Moore, stock car speedster who has been in frequent scrapes with the law, in connection with a hit-run, accident which occurred around 7:30 p. m. yesterday in Perkiomenville.

A car was reported picked up by police about a half mile from the scene of the accident by Howard Bergey, Souderton Bergey's daughter was driving the other car involved in the mishap.

Bergey said his daughter, Marilyn, was driving alone and had come over the crest of the hill to find two cars heading toward her, one car attempting to pass going up the hill.

The car attempting to pass, identified later by police as Moore's car, struck the Bergey vehicle on the left side causing extensive scratches and tearing off the chrome strip.

The passing vehicle then ran off the road to the right, knocked over parts of a fence and some stones.

The driver was able to get back on the highway and continued for about a half mile where he abandoned his car, with a flat tire.

Kuzmechs Weep During Reunion

had told two days before. He was filled with youthful reticence, however. He wouldn't say much about the two years he spent in the Communist camps. He would answer questions but his answers were brief and included few elaborations. He told of his capture, of how he was flying his F84 jet on a bombing raid on railroad lines in North Korea. "I had just dropped my bomb and climbed to 7000 feet when the flak hit. I think it tore off a wing and hit the under side of the plane."

ACCORDING to a letter from a friend of the lieutenant's who was flying alone on the mission, Kuzmech was seen running toward the woods after he bailed out. But Frank said, "That wasn't quite true. He wrote that only to set my family at ease. Actually, nobody saw me running toward the woods."

After he hit the ground, the lieutenant was spotted by North Koreans in about 15 minutes. "I lay in a ditch and they started shooting at me. I figured that they'd keep shooting until they finally got me, so I decided to stand up. I did, and put my arms over my head but they kept shooting at me as I stood there. I guess I was lucky they didn't hit me before they decided to take me a prisoner. The North Koreans didn't take many prisoners."

"Then followed interrogation by the Chinese Communists and then a brutal questioning by North Koreans." He didn't sleep much in five days. Every time he would roll off to sleep, the guard would start yelling and making loud noises. "I didn't sleep much," he said, looking down at his hands as he spoke. He was smoking a cigar that didn't fit with his youthful countenance.

HE WAS then taken to a North Korean camp for two months. The only food he got to eat was rice. He lived with 17 other men in a single native hut.

"I didn't get any extra clothes until the end of November," he said. That meant that he had spent over one month in the zero cold of North Korea with only a Summer flying suit.

"Then they gave us some old worn uniforms. For those two months I was worked by the North Koreans as part of a labor gang. The North Koreans were brutal," he said.

"They got laughs at the sight of seeing one of their own men being killed. Actually laughed with one another over it."

The young flyer was asked to give some idea of the kind of treatment he received during those two months.

"Well, out of the 18 men who started with me six of them died in those two months."

Then he fingered the drink he was sipping and looked into the bottom of the glass.

"I was on burial detail for three of them. The heaviest toll of death was due to malnutrition," he added.

AFTER two months in that camp he was taken to Camp 2, the same camp O'Connor was in just south of the Yalu river.

It was something of a relief, although slightly. The North Koreans, he said, were much more cruel than the Chinese were.

"Just something like saying that rattlesnakes are kinder than co-

Besides his parents, Welsh is survived by four brothers, Donald H., of Thorndale; John G., and Robert, both at home; Clyde Jr., of the US Air Force; a sister, Joan, at home, and a grandmother, Mrs. Edna Hatfield, Coatesville. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 3 p. m. from the Archie Maclean funeral home, Coatesville. The Rev. George Sandville will be in charge. Interment will be in Brandywine manor cemetery.

Exhibits Set Up By Jacobs Plant

Some Pottstonians got a "sneak preview" of the Air Force exhibit held in co-operation with the Jacobs Aircraft Engine company when they strolled into the armory yesterday to see what all the activity was about.

They found the activity centered on two big trailer trucks which four airmen had driven here for the exhibit from Dayton, Ohio.

Besides inspecting the J-47 jet engine, the spectators took a turn in trying to identify different planes. They did this by pushing buttons on a 21-foot display on which plane models were run along a track.

Besides the Air Force models, and other displays, Jacobs is displaying the engines it has built in the past 25 years.

The exhibit starts officially today when the armory will be open from 2 to 4 p. m. and 6 to 9 p. m. Tomorrow and Wednesday the hours will be 1:30 to 4 p. m. and 6 to 9 p. m. There is no admission charge.

had told two days before.

He was filled with youthful reticence, however. He wouldn't say much about the two years he spent in the Communist camps.

He would answer questions but his answers were brief and included few elaborations. He told of his capture, of how he was flying his F84 jet on a bombing raid on railroad lines in North Korea.

"I had just dropped my bomb and climbed to 7000 feet when the flak hit. I think it tore off a wing and hit the under side of the plane."

But Frank said, "That wasn't quite true. He wrote that only to set my family at ease."

Actually, nobody saw me running toward the woods."

After he hit the ground, the lieutenant was spotted by North Koreans in about 15 minutes.

"I lay in a ditch and they started shooting at me. I figured that they'd keep shooting until they finally got me, so I decided to stand up. I did, and put my arms over my head but they kept shooting at me as I stood there. I guess I was lucky they didn't hit me before they decided to take me as a prisoner. The North Koreans didn't take many prisoners."

"Then followed interrogation by the Chinese Communists and then a brutal questioning by North Koreans."

He didn't sleep much in five days. Every time he would roll off to sleep, the guard would start yelling and making loud noises. "I didn't sleep much," he said, looking down at his hands as he spoke.

He was smoking a cigar that didn't fit with his youthful countenance.

HE WAS then taken to a North Korean camp for two months. The only food he got to eat was rice. He lived with 17 other men in a single native hut.

"I didn't get any extra clothes until the end of November," he said. That meant that he had spent over one month in the zero cold of North Korea with only a Summer flying suit.

"Then they gave us some old worn uniforms. For those two months I was worked by the North Koreans as part of a labor gang. The North Koreans were bestial," he said.

"They got laughs at the sight of seeing one of their own men being killed. Actually laughed with one another over it."

The young flyer was asked to give some idea of the kind of treatment he received during those two months.

"Well, out of the 18 men who started with me six of them died in those two months."

Then he fingered the drink he was sipping and looked into the bottom of the glass.

"I was on burial detail for three of them. The heaviest toll of death was due to malnutrition," he added.

AFTER two months in that camp he was taken to Camp 2, the same camp O'Connor was in just south of the Yalu river.

It was something of a relief, although slightly. The North Koreans, he said, were much more cruel than the Chinese were.

"Just something like saying that rattlesnakes are kinder than co-bras. But the Chinese were running the whole show in Korea and the Chinese and North Koreans hated one another viciously. At one point it got so bad that they almost started firing on one another," he said.

Kuzmech was asked if any Americans tried to escape from the camp.

"We used to call it 'bug out.' Some tried. I don't know of a one who ever got back to our side. One did get about 18 miles from the coast, then he couldn't walk any more. They got him. The North Koreans civilians were so scared of the Chinese Communists that they turned you right over soon as they saw you. That's what made it impossible."

Kuzmech did say that the North Koreans seemed sympathetic to Americans, but they didn't shield them because they feared the Chinese.

Then you would say that the North Korean civilians are not definitely sold on Communism?

"Not by a long shot they're not."

HE WAS asked about the Communist indoctrination classes that were held 10 hours a day, daily seven days a week.

Did he think any American could really swallow the propaganda even though it was pounded and pounded into them?

"Let's say that some of them guys came out in doubt. They questioned things about American society that they had never even thought twice about before. I suppose that's what the Communist goal was."

He was asked if any men were beaten or tortured because they didn't sign various statements about America's guilt in the war. He said, "Yes." He did not elaborate.

But the lieutenant had talked enough about politics and heard too much about politics during the past two years. He was back in the US and he was sitting on a comfortable sofa with his shoes off sipping an ice-cold drink and his mother and father were sitting beside him. Right now that's all Lt. Frank Kuzmech wanted.

Exhibits Set Up By Jacobs Plant

Some Pottstowners got a "sneak preview" of the Air Force exhibit held in co-operation with the Jacobs Aircraft Engine company when they strolled into the armory yesterday to see what all the activity was about.

They found the activity centered on two big trailer trucks which four airmen had driven here for the exhibit from Dayton, Ohio.

Besides inspecting the J-47 jet engine, the spectators took a turn in trying to identify different planes. They did this by pushing buttons on a 21-foot display on which plane models were run along a track.

Besides the Air Force models, and other displays, Jacobs is displaying the engines it has built in the past 25 years.

The exhibit starts officially today when the armory will be open from 2 to 4 p. m. and 6 to 9 p. m. Tomorrow and Wednesday the hours will be 1:30 to 4 p. m. and 6 to 9 p. m. There is no admission charge.

Big Builders' Parade Scheduled Today

Preparations will come to an end today when the floats will be taken from exhibits and floats for the Pottstown Building Industries exchange parade today.

The results of the work which has been going on all week will be brought to light when the parade gets underway at 7 p. m.

The parade will be led by a color guard which will fall in at Madison street, march to Manatany street, then fall out.

The rest of the parade starts at Firestone boulevard and will go down High street to and through Stowe.

Two Boyertown bands will supply the musical accompaniment. They are the Friendship Hook and Ladder company band and the Boyertown American Legion Post band.

Publication Stated

The first monthly bulletin of Jacobs Local 3802, United Steel Workers (CIO), will be published next month it was announced yesterday.

The union's educational committee, in charge of the publication, reported the bulletin will include explanations of grievances, a steward's column, a president's column, labor history and reports of shop discussions.

The bulletin will be named by members in a shop contest.

Members voted $200 to strike-bound Flagg Local 2326 USW (CIO), and adopted a schedule of contributions to locals on strike anywhere in the district.

President Mark L. Brown presided at the session in the Sanatoga Fire company hall.

Rubber Union Here Gives Approval to Its New Contract

Members of Firestone Local 336, United Rubber Workers (CIO), yesterday unanimously approved the firm-wide contract—a contract settlement which ended a four-day strike of Firestone Tire and Rubber company plants the past Aug. 30.

Local 336 President Robert E. Garber told 200 members all eight Firestone plants across the nation have agreed to the contract.

The 12-cent hourly pay-rise package includes a five-cent general wage increase.

Provisions of the contract are:

1. A five-cent an hour increase in wages.
2. A $25 increase in pension payments.
3. Liberalization of the vacation plan.
4. Company-paid hospitalization plan.

Members authorized Garber to set up a committee to study inequities.

The afternoon session was held in the CIO hall, 364 King street.

Only one hospital plan provides

so much hospital Care for your dollar:

COMMUNITY  SPONSORED

BLUE CROSS

Nonprofit, community-sponsored Blue Cross devotes about 92c of every dollar it takes in for the hospital care its members need. No other prepaid hospitalization comes even close to paying back such a high percentage of the premium for the care of its policyholders.

Blue Cross is by far your best buy, because it provides the hospital care you need—not just a fixed amount of cash that may cover only a very small part of your bill. The Blue Cross contract covers in full the bills of most subscribers choosing semiprivate rooms, and for their maternity care, Blue Cross pays at least $75.

Blue Shield is the companion plan to Blue Cross that pays all or a large part of your doctor bills. Your family needs both Blue Cross and Blue Shield.

Members of Firestone Local 336, United Rubber Workers (CIO), yesterday unanimously approved the firm-wide contract—a contract settlement which ended a four-day strike of Firestone Tire and Rubber company plants the past Aug. 30.

Local 336 President Robert E. Garber told 200 members all eight Firestone plants across the nation have agreed to the contract.

The 12-cent hourly pay-rise package includes a five-cent general wage increase.

Provisions of the contract are:

1. A five-cent an hour increase in wages.
2. A $25 increase in pension payments.
3. Liberalization of the vacation plan.
4. Company-paid hospitalization plan.

Members authorized Garber to set up a committee to study inequities.

The afternoon session was held in the CIO hall, 364 King street.

Only one hospital plan provides

so much hospital Care for your dollar:

BLUE CROSS

Nonprofit, community-sponsored Blue Cross devotes about 92c of every dollar it takes in for the hospital care its members need. No other prepaid hospitalization comes even close to paying back such a high percentage of the premium for the care of its policyholders.

Blue Cross is by far your best buy, because it provides the hospital care you need—not just a fixed amount of cash that may cover only a very small part of your bill. The Blue Cross contract covers in full the bills of most subscribers choosing semiprivate rooms, and for their maternity care, Blue Cross pays at least $75.

Blue Shield is the companion plan to Blue Cross that pays all or a large part of your doctor bills. Your family needs both Blue Cross and Blue Shield.

Woman Detective Captures Pickpocket

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (AP)—As hundreds of churchgoers milled about, a woman detective captured a frantically struggling woman pickpocket suspect after a hair-pulling contest on the steps of St. Patrick's cathedral today.

Before the prisoner was subdued, Detective Mary A. Shanley fired two warning shots into the air and then resorted to fistuffs as the woman flailed at her, pulling at clothing and hair and beating her about the head.

During the struggle a male accomplice of the woman ran back into the huge church and apparently escaped through another door.

The captured woman was identified as Estella Gonzalez Diaz, 26, here on a visitor's visa from Mexico.

An average boy of 10 should gain about 6 pounds in one year.

Which is at the rate of 1/2 pound per month; or less than 2 ounces each week. But any time your child fails to gain puts her or him that far behind.

Why Lack of Food-Energy Causes Weight and Growth Loss
Carbohydrate and fat supply food-energy. Protein supplies the "building blocks" of growth.

Now Nature cannot use carbohydrate and fat alone for growth, but it can use protein for energy.

Thus, when your child fails to get enough carbohydrate and fat food-energy, Nature uses the protein for food-energy instead of growth.

The result: Your child's growth is stunted.

Wonder Bread Helps Your Child Grow Bigger and Stronger 8 Ways

A well-balanced diet calls for meat, milk, eggs, fruit and both yellow and green-leaved vegetables. And carbohydrate food for energy. Like Wonder Bread.

Mary Kienle and Andrew Krupiak United At Nuptial Mass in Pottstown Church

Before an altar decorated with white gladioli wedding vows were repeated Saturday by Mary B. Kienle and Andrew Krupiak at a nuptial mass held in St. Aloysius Catholic church with the Rev. George P. Hiller officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Kienle, 608 King street.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Mary Krupiak and the late Steven Krupiak, 616 Howard street, Stowe.

During the ceremony Paul Marchek, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Kurtz, sang "Ave Maria," "O Lord I Am Not Worthy," "Pans Angelicus" and "Mother at Thy Feet I'm Kneeling."

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride was gownned in lustrous rose point chantilly lace over gossamer satin, drama-tizing a sculptured portrait neck-line. Enticing its permanent pleat-ings were lace medallion appli-ques centered with rhinestones.

Long tapering sleeves ex-tended into points over her wrists. Attached to the dia-mond inserted waistline was a voluminous sheath skirt edged with permanent pleating form-ing a bustle box back under-scored with several petticoats.

A queen's coronet of rhine-stones and seed pearls gloved from a billowing fingertip veil edged in the matching lace, white sequins and rhinestones. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid.

The bride wore a marquise cross, a gift from the groom. She also carried a white pearl rosary from Italy which the groom obtained while on a cruise through the Mediter-ranean before his recent dis-charge from the Navy.

Mrs. Charles Kienle, Pottstown RD 4, the bride's sister-in-law, at-tended her as matron of honor. Her choice was a gown of heavenly blue and ombre tulle, styled with a tulip bustline from which gradu-ated tiers of flounces extended to the floor.

A Spencer jacket, matching mitts and a floral headpiece completed her outfit. She carried an arm basket of yellow roses, yellow pompons and white carnations.

Outfitted in gowns identical to that of the matron of honor were the bridesmaids, Jacque-line Heil, 423 Water street; Kathleen Borgiet, 204 East street, both cousins of the bride, and Peggy Stanton, 212 South Franklin street.

They also carried arm baskets of yellow roses and yellow pompons. The rhinestone crosses they wore were gifts from the bride.

A miniature version of the ma-tron of honor was Sherry Rock, niece of the groom, who was flower girl. Her gown and arm basket of flowers matched exactly those of the bride.

Mrs. Krupiak is a stenographer at Varcraft Works, Inc. She was graduated from Pottstown Senior High school in 1945.

Mr. Krupiak attended West Pottsgrove schools and is employed as an inspector at Doehler-Jarvis corporation.

FIFTY YEARS of married life was celebrated recently by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin T. Reiter, Hopperville. The golden anni-versary of the Marlborough township couple was observed with a buffet luncheon at the home of the couple's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart R. Kennell, Sixth and Penn streets, Pennsburg.

The couple are the parents of three daughters, twins, Mrs. Gladys Kennell and Mrs. Glenna Gehris, and Mrs. Earl Kulp and a son, Stanley. They also have seven grandchildren.

Attending the anniversary luncheon were the honored couple; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kulp and son, Pfc. Earl B. Kulp, Jr., Green Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reinert, Red Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gehris and children Clarence Jr. and Gloria of Bechtels-ville; Stanley Reiter, Hopperville; and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Kennell and children Larry, Shirley and Roland of Pennsburg.

Mary Kienle and Andrew Krupiak United At Nuptial Mass in Pottstown Church

Before an altar decorated with white gladioli wedding vows were repeated Saturday by Mary B. Kienle and Andrew Krupiak. The nuptial mass place in St. Aloysius Catholic church with the Rev. George P. Hiller officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Kienle, 608 King street.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Mary Krupiak and the late Steven Krupiak, 616 Howard street, Stowe.

During the ceremony Paul Marchek, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Kurtz, sang "Ave Maria," "O Lord I Am Not Worthy," "Panis Angelicus" and "Mother at Thy Feet I'm Kneeling."

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride was gowned in lustrous rose point chantilly lace over gossamer satin, drama-tizing a sculptured portrait neck-line. Enticing its permanent pleat-ing were lace medallion appli-ques centered with rhinestones.

Long tapering sleeves ex-tended into points over her wrists. Attached to the dia-mond inserted waistline was a voluminous sheath skirt edged with permanent pleating form-ing a bustle box back under-scored with several petticoats.

A queen's coronet of rhine-stones and seed pearls glowed from a billowing fingertip veil edged in the matching lace, white sequins and rhinestones. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid.

The bride wore a marquise cross, a gift from the groom. She also carried a white pearl rosary from Italy which the groom obtained while on a cruise through the Mediter-ranean before his recent dis-charge from the Navy.

Mrs. Charles Kienle, Pottstown RD 4, the bride's sister-in-law, at-tended her as matron of honor. Her choice was a gown of heavenly blue and ombre tulle, styled with a tulip bustline from which gradu-ated tiers of flounces extended to the floor.

A spencer jacket, matching mitts and a floral headpiece completed her outfit. She carried an arm basket of yellow roses, yellow pompons and white carnations.

Outfitted in gowns identical to that of the matron of honor were the bridesmaids, Jacque-line Heil, 423 Water street; Kathleen Borgiet, 204 East street, both cousins of the bride, and Peggy Stanton, 212 South Franklin street.

They also carried arm baskets of yellow roses and yellow pom-poms. The rhinestone crosses they wore were gifts from the bride.

A miniature version of the ma-tron of honor was Sherry Rock, niece of the groom, who was flower girl. Her gown and arm basket of flowers matched exactly those of

Mrs. Kienle.

Paul Kalin, Laureldale road, Temple, performed the duties of best man. Ushers were David Krupiak, brother of the groom, Charles Kienle, brother of the bride, and George Meko, Pottstown RD 2.

James Kienle, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer.

Following the church service a wedding breakfast was held at the Hanover House for the bridal party and immediate families.

Approximately 400 friends and relatives attended the reception in St. Peter's hall, South and Price streets.

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue lace over taffeta dress with navy accessories. The groom's mother wore a steel gray rayon dress accented with black accessories. Both wore corsages of red roses.

A pink rayon gadardine suit worn with black accessories and her bridal orchid was the bride's choice for traveling. Upon their return from their New York and Canada wedding trip the couple will reside at 608 Buttonwood street.

Mrs. Krupiak is a stenographer at Varcraft Works, Inc. She was graduated from Pottstown Senior High school in 1945.

Mr. Krupiak attended West Pottsgrove schools and is employed as an inspector at Doehler-Jarvis corporation.

"ESKIMO" BY MYRICAE OF ROME . . . an evening coat of white lamb's wool inspired by the traditional Eskimo costume features a snug parka lined in white fox fur. A deep flounce edges the coat and accents its oh-so-new "clarinet" silhouette. Bands of embroidered linen ribbon add a colorful note to the $500 Italian import, one of a vast collection of Italian originals Hess Brothers bought at the premiere designer openings in Rome and Florence and is showing in Pottstown, for the first time, at the fashion show it is presenting for the Pottstown Woman's Club on Tuesday evening, September 22.

Fashions valued at more than $20,000 and including one of the most outstanding groups of couture fashions imported by Hess Brothers from the top Italian designing salons of Rome and Florence will highlight the fashion show the nationally known Allentown store is presenting.

Running the gamut from a $2500 ball gown by famous Italian designer Simonetta to a $500 evening wrap modeled after an Eskimo coat by Myricae of Rome, the Italian originals cover exotic at-home clothes and unusual sports outfits.

The fashion presentation, scheduled for 8:15 p. m. at the Maria Assunta Hall, will include a complete showing of daytime and evening wear representing the top design and manufacturing houses of this country . . . with the moderate priced American fashions giving sharp contrast to the costly imported fashions.

Commentator for the show will be Gerry Golden, who purchased the exclusive Italian fashions on a two-week European buying trip in search of fashions, fashion accessories, silver, leather goods and children's wear.

"ESKIMO" BY MYRICAE OF ROME . . . an evening coat of white lamb's wool inspired by the traditional Eskimo costume features a snug parka lined in white fox fur. A deep flounce edges the coat and accents its oh-so-new "clarinet" silhouette. Bands of embroidered linen ribbon add a colorful note to the $500 Italian import, one of a vast collection of Italian originals Hess Brothers bought at the premiere designer openings in Rome and Florence and is showing in Pottstown, for the first time, at the fashion show it is presenting for the Pottstown Woman's Club on Tuesday evening, September 22.

Fashions valued at more than $20,000 and including one of the most outstanding groups of couture fashions imported by Hess Brothers from the top Italian designing salons of Rome and Florence will highlight the fashion show the nationally known Allentown store is presenting.

Running the gamut from a $2500 ball gown by famous Italian designer Simonetta to a $500 evening wrap modeled after an Eskimo coat by Myricae of Rome, the Italian originals cover exotic at-home clothes and unusual sports outfits.

The fashion presentation, scheduled for 8:15 p. m. at the Maria Assunta Hall, will include a complete showing of daytime and evening wear representing the top design and manufacturing houses of this country . . . with the moderate priced American fashions giving sharp contrast to the costly imported fashions.

Commentator for the show will be Gerry Golden, who purchased the exclusive Italian fashions on a two-week European buying trip in search of fashions, fashion accessories, silver, leather goods and children's wear.

Patricia Gibbons Is Bride of Lester Andes At Double Ring Ceremony in Limerick Church

Approximately 100 guests viewed the wedding of Patricia Mae Gibbons and Lester Carl Andes held in the St. James Reformed church, Limerick.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Gibbons, 1163 South street, Pottstown.

The grooms parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andes, Creamery.

Bouquets of white gladioli and pompons decorated the altar before which the Rev. W. Reed Teitsworth performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride's floor-length gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace with a small flower setting of seeded pearls outlining the illusion neckline. The long tapering sleeves extending over her hands were also of Chantilly lace.

Permanently pleated nylon net over panels of taffeta formed her skirt. Her finger-tip veil of nylon illusion net edged with Chantilly lace was attached to a half-cloche of white satin and lace.

A single strand of pearls, a gift from her father, was her only jewelry.

She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid and white satin streamers adorned with pompons. She was given in marriage by her father.

Organist, Mrs. W. Miller, accompanied Mrs. Paul Favinger who sang, "O Promise Me," "I Love Thee," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A cousin of the groom, June A. Ellis, served as maid of honor. Dressed in a pink ballerina length gown, she wore a headpiece of white pompons and carried a nosegay of the same flowers.

Gowns similar to that of the maid of honor were worn by bridesmaid's Sue LaRose, 1240 Maple street, and Mrs. Ernest Weigner, sister of the groom, Collegeville.

Miss LaRose's gown was blue, and Mrs. Weigner's lavender. They also wore headpieces of white pompons and carried nosegays of the same.

Theodore Andes, brother of the groom, Creamery, served as best man. Performing the duties of the ushers were Leslie Parker, cousin of the groom, Trenton, N. J., and James Gibbons Jr., the bride's brother.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Sunday school room appropriately decorated with white bells and white paper streamers.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of blue silk shantung with black accessories. Her corsage was of white pompons.

The groom's mother was dressed in blue lace. She, too, wore a corsage of white pompons.

The bride was graduated from the Pottstown High school in 1952. She is now employed by Memorial hospital as a laboratory trainee.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Andes

The groom was graduated from Schwenksville High school in 1947 and is employed at the Lansdale Tube Co. He is a standing member of the consistory of the St. James Reformed church, Limerick.

Previous to her marriage a shower was given Mrs. Andes by June A. Ellis, Sue LaRose and Mrs. Ernest Weigner at the latter's home in Collegeville.

Nelson Grofe Gives Illustrated Talk To Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Members

Nelson Grofe, art instructor at Pottstown Senior High school, explained to members of the Memorial Hospital auxiliary the various stages a picture goes through from the time it is sketched, painted and sold to the moment it appears on the cover of a national magazine.

His talk was presented at the past week's meeting of the Memorial auxiliary. Previous to becoming a teacher, Mr. Grofe did free lance art work for 15 years.

His Originals have appeared on the covers of "Country Gentleman," "Ladies Home Journal," "Motor Boating," "Nature Magazine," "House Beautiful," "The Etude" and "Jack and Jill."

He has also illustrated stories for "Good Housekeeping," stories by Pearl Buck, and has done pen and ink sketches for book jackets.

Mrs. H. Ellis Jones, vice president, presided at the auxiliary's meeting.

A welcoming address was given by Albert Pollick, hospital administrator.

During the meeting Mrs. Anthony Di Maggio was appointed to fill the unexpired term of corresponding secretary, Mrs. Paul Atkins, who has moved out of town.

Mrs. Ralph Levitz was named membership chairman. A motion was also passed to purchase new curtains for the hospital lobby and offices.

A report on the work of the gray ladies was given by Mrs. Ira Traie. She stressed the facts that the hospital can use more of them and that you do not have to be an auxiliary member to serve in this capacity.

Mrs. William Achatz won the first prize club arrangement of the Pottstown Rose society, a perpetual trophy.

Mrs. Harold Bauman and Mrs. Robert Boarman will be in charge of the club's rummage sale.

Ways and means chairman, Mrs. Clayton Hutt, presented a detailed report of the projects held by the auxiliary.

Hostesses for the evening were: Margaret Diefenderfer, Geraldine Stricker, Mrs. Alfred Marquet and Mrs. Richard Kind.

Dessert Meeting Slated By Women's Association

A dessert meeting scheduled for Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. will open the Fall season for the Women's association of the First Presbyterian church.

Circle three will hostess the meeting which will be held in the church. Mrs. George Cocke-fair and Mrs. George McCormick will be in charge of the dessert.

An illustrated talk on "Educational Programs for Missions" will be given by Eleanor Cornmesser, librarian of Pottstown Senior high school.

LeRoy DePfontaine will present special music. Preceding the program, a business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Christian Stauffer, president of the association.

All the women of the church are invited to attend.

posite Merritt's lumber establishment.

Mrs. Templin has an unusually large line of domestic and imported dolls. What a selection you'll get of dolls made in Germany as well as from well-known American manufacturers!

INCIDENTALLY, she wishes to remind patrons that any order for doll clothes made to order must be in before Oct. 15, for no orders will be accepted after that date until the holiday season is over.

Doll repairs are made by Mrs. Templin, who has been interested in this business for many years here, has made a keen study of dolls, appropriate clothes for them, etc.

'Phone Pottstown 4691 if you have inquiries about dolls, but better yet visit her place of business and look over this great line of dolls and doll clothes.

Smith, Quicksell Win Stock Car Features

Wild Bill Smith, of Germantown, and the Boyertown flash, Billy Quicksell, ran wild at Sanatoga speedway Saturday night, with Smith taking the feature, and Quicksell winning the previously postponed Memorial Hospital handicap.

Both men notched three wins apiece, and each set a new record, but Quicksell's new mark of 4:02.0 minutes for the first 15 lap semi-final was eclipsed when Smith jockeyed the second semi in 3:54.8 minutes.

Everyone finished in the Powder Puff derby, which was won by Mrs. William Wharton, of Birdsboro. Pottstown's Mrs. Becky Krause more like a three-ring circus than an auto race, was taken by Robert Gray, of Norristown. Four Pottstonians finished fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth in the wild event. Respectively, they were Frenchie Leclerc, John Krause, H. J. Smith, and Skeeter Detwiler.

Butch Moore finished second to Clarence Wagner in the Novice match race.

Quicksell hit the scoring column with his first feature win by taking the Memorial Hospital handicap. He was followed by Curt Sherman, Bill Ellis and Ray Johnson.

Red Lesner couldn't do any better than third in the first heat, finishing behind Bob Levensgood and Bob Johnson, who was first under the checkered flag in 3:14.2 minutes.

THE BOYERTOWN ACE, Quicksell, reached into the hat again, and popped up with the second heat, taking it in 3:13.3 minutes. He was followed up by Don Allison and Harry Moore.

Wild Bill picked up his first win of the evening by coming home in 3:14.6 minutes to win the third heat. George Gregory and Newt Reinert trailed him.

A new track record for fifteen laps was set in the first semi-final as Quicksell completed his winning for the night by shaving four seconds off the old mark. Charley Kelly and Allison followed him across the line.

The record didn't last long, as Smith tagged his second win by taking the second semi-final in the record time of 3:54.8 minutes. Eating Smith's dust were Gregory and Ray Johnson.

Newt Reinert nosed out Mose Moore in 3:15.9 minutes to win the consolation.

Smith and Quicksell fought it out in the feature, with Smith coming out on top. Gregory took the number two position, and Quicksell came up in third place.

There was no time on the feature. SUMMARIES

Marciano Solid Favorite Heavy Fight Card Features Title Bout

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (AP)—Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, who has fought just two minutes and 25 seconds in almost a year, returns to the ring with Thursday night to defend his crown against confident Roland La Starza in the Polo Grounds.

The 2:25 was all that Rocky needed to flatten old Jersey Joe Walcott in Chicago, May 15. Before that one, the Brockton Glaster kayoed Jersey Joe in 13 rounds in Philadelphia Sept. 23, 1952.

Despite the accumulation of ring rust, the 29-year old champ has been made a solid favorite at odds ranging from 3 1/2 to 5 to 1 for the 15-round in the open air park. Starting time is 10:30 p. m., Pottstown time.

The bout will not be broadcast or telecast to the general public. It will be telecast over a closed circuit to subscribing theaters from coast to coast.

The promoting International Boxing club expects a crowd of around 40,000 to pay $400,000 or better at the gate. Theater-TV is expected to add another $100,000 to the IBC and the fighters.

The 26-year old La Starza hasn't been too active of late. Either. His last outing was on Feb. 13 when he outpointed Rex Layne in ten rounds. Rocky chilled Layne in six rounds over two years ago.

IN THEIR FIRST SCRAP 3 1/2 years ago when both were undefeated prospects, Rocky gained a controversial split decision in ten rounds. La Starza has declared all along that he won an edge. A majority of ringside writers agreed with him. Marciano floored the New Yorker in the fourth round with a long right to the jaw.

Rocky has maintained his all-winning record, becoming the first heavyweight champion to snatch the crown with a perfect record. In 44 fights he has scored 39 knockouts and won five decisions.

La Starza's record is 53-3 with 24 kayos. He never has been stopped. Since the Marciano defeat he has dropped decisions to Dan Bucceroni and Rocky Jones. He averaged both defeats.

Although home TV fans won't get to see the big one, there will be the usual four network fights during the week.

On Monday, lightweight contenders Paddy De Marco of Brooklyn and Orlando Zulueta of Cuba have it out in a third and rubber meeting at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway arena. Each has won once. Their ten-rounder starts at 10 p. m. and will be telecast to some parts of the country.

VETERAN MIDDLEWEIGHT Lee Sala of Donora, Pa. and young Willie Troy of Washington, D. C., collide in a ten-rounder at the arena in Washington Wednesday night. CBS will telecast the 10 p. m. bout coast to coast.

Friday's coast-to-coast TV scrap matches light heavyweight contender Danny Nardico of Tampa, Fla. and James J. Parker, lanky Toronto heavyweight in a ten at New York's St. Nicholas Arena. Starting time is 10 p. m. It will be broadcast by ABC and telecast by NBC.

It turned out to be fine advice because Wils Bedell made the interception and the run that won the game for Pottstown.

Only two of the Trojans' other nine opponents won their games over the weekend. Here are the totals with the PHS opponent in bold type:

BRIDGEPORT 6, BERWYN 0
Lebanon, 39, COATESVILLE 0.
Lancaster 20, WEST CHESTER 6.

St. James 63, RIDLEY TOWN-SHIP 7.

Ambler 18, UPPER MERION 6.
NORRISTOWN 19, Haverford 14.

Phoenixville and Downingtown, the other two Ches-Mont league foes of the Trojans, were not scheduled.

Meyers learned a lot about his boys Friday night, and the boys learned a lot about playing football under fire. Next Thursday night should show an improved Trojan team taking the field against an Upper Merion team that is hungry for victory, especially after getting bumped 32-12 here the past season.

Greenly Pug Wins Group in Valley Forge Kennel Club Shows

An Afghan hound, Ch. Majara Mihrab, was named best dog in show at the sixth annual Valley Forge Kennel club dog show at Collegeville yesterday afternoon.

Also in the ring when Judge Mrs. Geraldine R. Dodge was selecting the show winner was Ch. Allen's Glory of Spring, the 2-year-old pug owned by Mrs. Fred Greenly, of Pottstown.

Fred Greenly was handling the pug as he won the toy group for the third show in three weeks. He also directed another pug to his championship, Greenly's Danny Boy. Although he bred this young pug, he later sold him to Jennie Beideman and Hattie Lewis, both of Norristown. By gaining a four-point win (best of winners), Danny Boy becomes a champion after only three months in the show ring.

One of the features of the Valley Forge show each year is the Lady and Her Dog Parade. Mrs. Admee T. Bowles, of Collegeville has practically a monopoly on first prize in this event. This is the third time in four years she has won.

LEADING A PAIR of husky Bouviers des Flandres, dogs that closely resemble giant Schnauzers, Mrs. Bowles was attired in a German costume and over the backs of the dogs were sacks of potatoes that were being smuggled across the border.

Miss Therna B. Shellenberger, of Pottstown RD 1, was also in the parade with one of her English setters. She was wearing a hunters outfit.

George Skinner, TV entertainer, was judge of the parade. Mrs. Dodge, who runs the Morris and Essex show at Madison, N. J., was much impressed with the parade and may incorporate it in her annual event which is the largest dog show in the world.

Ch. Majara Mihrab, the best-in-show dog, is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Jagger, of Somerville RD 1, N. J.

"KO" Norris Decisions Amato in Slow 10 at Gabelsville

Stomach cramps, last-minute substitutions and the threat of rain all combined Saturday night to KO promoter Jim DiCindio's outdoor slug festival at the Gabelsville punchbowl.

Before an estimated scattering of 320 fans, Emmett "KO" Norris, 161 pounds, of Harrisburg, split-decisioned Tony Amato, a 164-pounder from New York, in the ten-round feature, which turned out to be a 30-minute waltz with a few grappling holds thrown in.

In the opening four-rounder, George Faizon, of New York, knocked out Jim Steward, Philadelphia, in the second round. Steward subdued for Reading's Frank Romano.

The second bout was canceled when George Liplowski, Reading heavyweight, developed a bad stomach cramp and was unable to answer the bell for his bout with New York's Jack McCarthy.

The third bout, a six-rounder, pitted Sam McCoy, 191 pounds from Pottstown, against 189-pound Lou Holmes of Providence, R. I.

McCoy, who had been ill before the fight, had a rough time of it for three rounds, as Holmes reach kept him off. In the third, Lou belted McCoy halfway through the ropes for a nine count, and when the bell sounded was whaling away at Sam with rights and lefts.

THE FOURTH ROUND lasted only 32 seconds. McCoy came out throwing hard leather and caught Holmes flush on the chin with a right. Lou's mouthpiece went sailing through the air, and he went to birdie-land.

The sem-windup, which came after the feature because of threatening skies, went three rounds as Tommy Marciano, 134 pounds from Phoenixville, got to Almanda Roza, a 142 pound substitute from New York, in the third. Tommy swarmed all over Roza in that round, belting the New Yorker with terrific rights and lefts. Roza was unable to come out for the fourth.

Tommy was down in the first when Almanda caught him off balance, but Marciano bounced right back up and was amazed, as were the spectators, when Referee George Lengel, of Reading, forced him to take the mandatory count.

Norris and Amato shadowboxed throughout the ten-round feature, occasionally flurrying only to get tied up immediately.

Lengel echoed the crowd's sentiments as he continually told the fighters, "Come on boys, let's make a fight of it. Let's make a fight."

But his pleas fell on deaf ears, as Amato kept jabbing and Norris continued to imitate Jersey Joe Walcott's cutie style.

ONE BRIGHT SPOT in the feature occurred in the sixth when KO slipped to the canvas and Tony helped him up. That, at least, gave the crowd something to cheer about.

In the seventh, Norris opened up on Tony with two wide swinging rights, but Amato, using beautiful footwork and a rapier-like left jab, kept "KO" off.

It wasn't until the ninth that KO caught Tony again. This time two hard rights on the button sent Amato reeling across the ring and into the ropes with a surprised look on his face, but he weathered the round and came out for the final three minutes looking none the worse.

In the tenth, "KO" pushed Tony through the ropes, and Amato hung there upside down, but the fight ended with very few heavy blows having been landed and no knockdowns.

The decision, just about as varied as you can get it, practically floored Amato, who climbed down from the ring and kicker over a folding chair to demonstrate just how he felt about the whole thing.

Lengel scored it 5-4 in favor of Norris. Judge Schofer called it 6-4, Amato, and Judge Paul Ziegler gave practically the whole works to Norris, 7-3.

Grover Barbour, Norris' manager, claimed that he didn't want "KO" to try for the big one, that he just wanted him to go the route.

ALL TONY HAD to say was, "I wuz robbed. I think I only lost three rounds out of the ten."

An added attraction, although it was a short one, came when two slightly under-the-weather spectators tried to mix it up after the scheduled brawls. The windup came when one gent swung, missed, then staggered off in the opposite direction, obviously having forgotten what he was doing. After knocking over several seats, he finally flopped down in one and stared vacantly at the empty ring.

DiCindio has called it quits until some time in the Spring. The substitutions and the poor attendance caused his decision.

"The fight business is fluky," were his last words on the subject.

Wally Campbell Wins Reading Feature Race

READING, Sept. 20 (AP)—Newcomer Wally Campbell, 27-year-old ex-sailor from Trenton, N. J., with only six weeks of big car experience, blazed to an upset victory in 8:53.39 minutes to win the ten-mile Reading Fair sweepstakes before, 36,142 persons packed into the fairgrounds today.

It was Campbell's second major victory in two days and his third since shedding stock cars for big machines in early August. He captured the feature race at Norristown, N. J., Saturday night.

Wentzel Pigeon Wins Lenape Race

Smith, Quicksell Win Stock Car Features

Wild Bill Smith, of Germantown, and the Boyertown flash, Billy Quicksell, ran wild at Sanatoga speedway Saturday night, with Smith taking the feature, and Quicksell winning the previously postponed Memorial Hospital handicap.

Both men notched three wins apiece, and each set a new record, but Quicksell's new mark of 4:02.0 minutes for the first 15 lap semi-final was eclipsed when Smith jockeyed the second semi in 3:54.8 minutes.

Everyone finished in the Powder Puff derby, which was won by Mrs. William Wharton, of Birdsboro. Pottstown's Mrs. Becky Krause more like a three-ring circus than an auto race, was taken by Robert Gray, of Norristown. Four Pottstonians finished fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth in the wild event. Respectively, they were Frenchie Leclerc, John Krause, H. J. Smith, and Skeeter Detwiler.

Trojans Defeated Much-Improved Lansdale Team

More than a few fans came home from the Pottstown High football game Friday night feeling somewhat let down because the Trojans could beat Lansdale by only six points. Take it from the man who was right on top of the action both in mind and body, "We beat a team that was much better than we expected to meet." That's how Coach Heeb Meyers summed up the 13-7 victory.

Many of the grid fellows in Lansdale feel that the present Huskie squad is the best the high school has fielded in several years. John Vinski was a rookie coach last year and his team dropped nine straight decisions, including the opening 33-0 loss at Pottstown's Franklin field.

Meyers said the Dales hit much harder this season, and their plays were much more advanced than the elementary offensive football they used here.

About his own team, Meyers felt, "We did everything well, but not hard enough." The Trojans biggest failure was their tackling. Artie Charles, Lansdale's nimble left half, was hit behind the line of scrimmage several times but only once was he brought down and that was on a pass play.

"If these boys can get mad enough, by the end of the season they'll be a good team," Meyers said referring to the experience he hopes they pick up along the way.

GETTING BACK to Pottstown's game at Lansdale, Meyers said he thought our pass defenders did a better job than the statistics would indicate. Charles completed six out of 13 heaves for a net gain of 65 yards. His pass receivers, especially Rip Teasenfiz, made some outstanding catches of balls that were just out of the reach of PHS defenders. Marciano Remains Unbeaten

Stomach cramps, last-minute substitutions and the threat of rain grappled holds thrown in. In the opening four-round, promoter Jim DiCindio's outdoor slug festival at the Gabelsville punchbowl.

Before an estimated scattering of 320 fans, Emmett "KO" Norris, 161 pounds, of Harrisburg, split-decided Tony Amato, a 164-pounder from New York, in the ten-round feature, which turned out to be a 30-minute waltz with a few substitutions and the threat of rain.

In the opening four-round, promoter Jim DiCindio's outdoor slug festival at the Gabelsville punchbowl.

Before an estimated scattering of 320 fans, Emmett "KO" Norris, 161 pounds, of Harrisburg, split-decided Tony Amato, a 164-pounder from New York, in the ten-round feature, which turned out to be a 30-minute waltz with a few substitutions and the threat of rain.

The second bout was canceled when George Liptowski, Reading heavyweight, developed a bad stomach cramp and was unable to answer the bell for his bout with New York's Jack McCarthy.

The third bout, a six-round, pitted Sam McCoy, 191 pounds from Pottstown, against 189-pound Lou Holmes of Providence, R. I.

McCoy, who had been ill before the fight, had a rough time of it for three rounds, as Holmes reach kept him off. In the third, Lou belted McCoy halfway through the ropes for a nine count, and when the bell sounded was whaling away at Sam with rights and lefts.

THE FOURTH ROUND lasted only 32 seconds. McCoy came out throwing hard leather and caught Holmes flush on the chin with a right. Lou's mouthpiece went sailing through the air, and he went to birdie-land.

The sem-windup, which came after the feature because of threatening skies, went three rounds as Tommy Marciano, 134 pounds from Phoenixville, got to Almanda Roza, a 142 pound substitute from New York, in the third. Tommy swarmed all over Roza in that round, hitting the New Yorker with terrific rights and lefts. Roza was unable to come out for the fourth.

Tommy was down in the first when Almanda caught him off balance, but Marciano bounced right back up and was amazed, as were the spectators, when Referee George Lengel, of Reading, forced him to take the mandatory count.

Norris and Amato shadow boxed throughout the ten-round feature, occasionally flurrying only to get tied up immediately.

Lengel echoed the crowd's sentiments as he continually told the fighters, "Come on boys, let's make a fight of it. Let's make a fight." But his pleas fell on deaf ears, as Amato kept jabbing and Norris continued to imitate Jersey Joe Walcott's cutie style.

ONE BRIGHT SPOT in the feature occurred in the sixth when KO slipped to the canvas and Tony helped him up. That, at least, gave the crowd something to cheer about.

In the seventh, Norris opened up on Tony with two wide swinging rights, but Amato, using beautiful footwork and a rapier-like left jab, kept "KO" off.

It wasn't until the ninth that KO caught Tony again. This time two hard rights on the button sent Amato reeling across the ring and into the ropes with a surprised look on his face, but he weathered the round and came out for the final three minutes looking none the worse.

In the tenth, "KO" pushed Tony through the ropes, and Amato lunged there upsidown, but the fight ended with very few heavy blows having been landed and no knockdowns.

The decision, just about as varied as you can get it, practically floored Amato, who climbed down from the ring and kicked over a folding chair to demonstrate just how he felt about the whole thing.

Lengel scored it 5-4 in favor of Norris. Judge Schofer called it 6-4, Amato, and Judge Paul Ziegler gave practically the whole works to Norris, 7-3.

Grover Barbour, Norris' manager claimed that he didn't want "KO" to try for the big one, that he just wanted him to go the route.

ALL TONY HAD to say was, "I wuz robbed. I think I only lost three rounds out of the ten."

An added attraction, although it was a short one, came when two slightly under-the-weather spectators tried to mix it up after the scheduled brawls. The windup came when one gent swung, missed, then staggered off in the opposite direction, obviously having forgotten what he was doing.

After knocking over several seats, he finally flopped down in one and stared vacantly at the empty ring.

DiCindio has called it quits until some time in the Spring. The substitutions and the poor attendance caused his decision.

"The fight business is fluky," were his last words on the subject.

Wally Campbell Wins Reading Feature Race

READING, Sept. 20 (AP)—Newcomer Wally Campbell, 27-year-old ex-sailor from Trenton, N. J., with only six weeks of big car experience, blazed to an upset victory in 8:53.39 minutes to win the ten-mile Reading Fair sweepstakes before 36,142 persons packed into the fairgrounds today.

It was Campbell's second major victory in two days and his third since shedding stock cars for big machines in early August. He captured the feature race at Norris town, N. J., Saturday night.

Greenly Pug Wins Group in Valley Forge Kennel Club Shows

An Afghan hound, Ch. Majara Mirhab, was named best dog in show at the sixth annual Valley Forge Kennel club dog show at Collegeville yesterday afternoon.

Also in the ring when Judge Mrs. Geraldine R. Dodge was selecting the show winner was Ch. Allen's Glory of Spring, the 2-year-old pug owned by Mrs. Fred Greenly, of Pottstown.

Fred Greenly was handling the pug as he won the toy group for the third show in three weeks. He also directed another pug to his championship, Greenly's Danny Boy. Although he bred this young pug, he later sold him to Jennie Beideman and Hattie Lewis, both of Norristown. By gaining a four-point win (best of winners), Danny Boy becomes a champion after only three months in the show ring.

One of the features of the Valley Forge show each year is the Lady and Her Dog Parade. Mrs. Admee T. Bowles, of Collegeville has practically a monopoly on first prize in this event. This is the third time in four years she has won.

LEADING A PAIR of husky Bouviers des Flandres, dogs that closely resemble giant Schnauzers, Mrs. Bowles was attired in a German costume and over the backs of the dogs were sacks of potatoes that were being smuggled across the border.

Miss Therna B. Shellenberger, of Pottstown RD 1, was also in the parade with one of her English setters. She was wearing a hunters outfit.

George Skinner, TV entertainer, was judge of the parade. Mrs. Dodge, who runs the Morris and Essex show at Madison, N. J., was much impressed with the parade and may incorporate it in her annual event which is the largest dog show in the world.

Ch. Majara Mirhab, the best-in-show dog, is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Jagger, of Somerville RD 1, N. J.

Yanks Snap Slump, Down Red Sox, 10-8, Ford Wins No. 18

BOSTON, Sept. 20 (AP) — Billy Martin's 3-run homer in the sixth inning today enabled the pennant-winning New York Yankees to snap their recent slump with a 10-8 victory over the Boston Red Sox. The Yankees had been held scoreless for 16 innings before clouting lefty Maury McDermott for three runs in the opening frame.

Ed Ford was credited with his 18th win against five losses but that lefthander had to be bailed out by Johnny Sain in the bottom of the sixth, during which Dick Gernert finished off a 6-run explosion by homering with two on base.

The Yankees clubbed five Boston flingers for 15 hits, including Mickey Mantle's 21st homer of the season and four singles by Gil McDougald.

The Yankees margin would have been greater but for a remarkable catch by the spectacular Jim Pier-sall. After McDougald singled against Ellis Kinder, who made his 68th relief appearance in the ninth inning, Joe Collins lashed a terrific drive to right center.

Piersall, set for a lefthanded batter, had to run about 50 yards before leaping high against the bullpen wall to rob Collins of a 2-run homer.

Martin's game-winning homer was against big Frank Sullivan, who gave up four other hits and a base on balls as the Yankees rallied for five runs.

A's Beat Senators, 13-9, 4-3; Phils Split With Dodgers

BROOKLYN, Sept. 20 (AP) — Junior Gilliam was the hero and goat today as the National League champion Brooklyn Dodgers divided a doubleheader with the Philadelphia Phillies. Gilliam's 6th inning triple scored Rube Walker with the deciding run in the Dodgers' 5-4 victory in the opener. His error with two out in the fifth of the nightcap permitted Richie Ashburn to advance from second to third from where the Philly speedster scored on a single by Del

Ennis with the run that gave the Phils a 2-1 triumph. The second game was halted after five innings because of darkness.

Rival pitchers Bob Miller of the Phils and Billy Loes of the Dodgers permitted four hits each. Miller did not walk a man as he gained his eighth victory against as many defeats. Loes walked two to absorb his eighth defeat against 13 victories.

Ashburn started the winning rally by beating out a scratch hit with two out in the fifth. He stole second and went to third when Gilliam fumbled Earl Torgeson's grounder. Ennis' single to left scored Ashburn with the winning run.

Braves End Season At Home With Split

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 20 (AP) — Milwaukee wound up its first major league baseball season in half a century in a blaze of glory today as the fans set a new National League attendance record and the Braves beat Cincinnati 3-0 after losing the first game of a doubleheader 5-3. Bonus pitcher Joey Jay, making his first major league start, shut out the Redlegs in a 6-inning game shortened by darkness before a crowd of 36,011.

Jay, Middletown, Conn., rookie who turned 18 this summer, struck out four and walked four to beat Joe Nuxhall in the 6th inning wind-up halted by darkness. Andy Pafko's 2-run homer in the first over the 402-foot mark in dead center field and Joe Adcock's long fly which scored Johnny Logan in the sixth accounted for the Braves' runs.

The young right-hander, who had pitched only two innings previously in relief, struck out Gus Bell twice and Ted Kuszewski once in his victory.

Trucks Wins 20th As Chisox Sweep 2

CHICAGO, Sept. 20 (AP) — The White Sox won a doubleheader from the St. Louis Browns today, 4-0 and 5-2 as Virgil Trucks became the first 20-game winner for the Sox since Lefty Thornton Lee in 1941. In the second game Ferris Fain, Chicago first baseman, made his 1,000th major league hit, a line single to left center.

Trucks, reaching the 20-victory mark for the first time in his career, started shakily in the nightcap as Dick Kokos led off with a home run and Dick Kryhoski followed with another a moment later. The pudgy right-hander then got things under control and gave up only three more hits.

Gracia Wins 18th Indians Divide Pair With Detroit

DETROIT, Sept. 20 (AP) — Mike Garcia won his 18th game of the season today, hurling the Cleveland Indians to a 6-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers in the second game of a doubleheader. Detroit slammed four homers—two by Steve Souchock—in winning the opener, 8-6.

The A's took the opener, giving rookie right-hander Bob Trice his first major league win, on a home run barrage sparked by Gus Zernial and Eddie Robinson, 13-9.

Giordano opened the 11th with a walk and advanced on a ground-out. After pinch-hitter Cass Michaels brought home the winning run with the line drive safety to center, his sixth hit of the day.

All the A's previous scoring was confined to the fourth when Ray Murray parked his sixth home run of the year in the upper left-field stands with two men on.

Washington scored first when Eddie Yost hit his ninth homer of the year in the third with a mate aboard and Vollmer knotted the score with his 11th home run in the seventh.

In the opener, Gus Zernial belted number 40 and 41 to pace the A's while Robinson chipped in with his 22nd circuit clout.

Trice failed to go the distance but some top-flight relief pitching from Charlie Bishop and Ron Man Morris Martin picked up his victory.

Abrams' "Slam" Beats New York

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (

Yanks Snap Slump, Down Red Sox, 10-8, Ford Wins No. 18

BOSTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—Billy Martin's 3-run homer in the sixth inning today enabled the pennant-winning New York Yankees to snap their recent slump with a 10-8 victory over the Boston Red Sox. The Yankees had been held scoreless for 16 innings before clouting lefty Maury McDermott for three runs in the opening frame.

Ed Ford was credited with his 18th win against five losses but that lefthander had to be bailed out by Johnny Sain in the bottom of the sixth, during which Dick Gernert finished off a 6-run explosion by homering with two on base.

The Yankees clubbed five Boston flingers for 15 hits, including Mickey Mantle's 21st homer of the season and four singles by Gil McDougald.

The Yankees margin would have been greater but for a remarkable catch by the spectacular Jim Piersall. After McDougald singled against Ellis Kinder, who made his 68th relief appearance in the ninth inning, Joe Collins lashed a terrific drive to right center.

Piersall, set for a lefthanded batter, had to rob about 50 yards before leaping high against the bullpen wall to rob Collins of a 2-run homer.

Martin's game-winning homer was against big Frank Sullivan, who gave up four other hits and a base on balls as the Yankees rallied for five runs.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A SHOE SALESMAN who had pulled out half the stock in an unsuccessful attempt to please a lady customer, mopped his brow and inquired, "Mind if I rest a moment, lady? Your feet are killing me!"

In the course of a boisterous celebration, a convivial soul teetered on the edge of a fourth-story balcony, lost his balance, and landed on the asphalt below. With the storied luck of such, he was only shaken up, with nary a bone broken. "What's happened?" gasped a cop arriving on the run. "Search me," grinned the fall guy. "I just got here myself."

Louis Bricolli, New York music critic, aimed this query at Arturo Toscanini: "Suppose you were shipwrecked on a tiny desert island. You had time only to rescue one opera score. What would you do?" Unhesitatingly, the Maestro replied, "I would drown myself."

'Live' Dynamite Cap Spied on Main Street By Spring City Cop

A four-inch dynamite cap with an electric detonator, which could have endangered anybody who might have touched it, was found in Spring City early Saturday night.

Patrolman Joseph Ferrara spied the device on South Main street, between Poplar and Walnut streets, while cruising in the police car.

He handled it with "kid gloves", knowing what it was, to prevent it from going off. Police Chief John Hanbury and Ferrara took it to the borough dump and detonated it.

To prevent injury to children or even adults who do not know how to handle dynamite caps, police issued warning to anybody finding them in the future to call police because extreme care is necessary in handling them.

Police began an investigation to learn who dropped the cap.

Lad Fractures Arm Second Year in Row; Swears Off Football

A 14-year-old Pottstown boy has sworn off football.

John "Jackie" Sechrist, 565 Virginia avenue, made the vow after he broke his left arm in a sandlot encounter with the pigskin sport Saturday morning.

He explained, "I'm done with football forever. Last year I broke my right arm. And now it's my left. That's enough for me."

Jackie went to tackle his younger brother, Richard, 12, but before he could grab the shirt of the fleet ball carrier, he was rudely thumped backward by a blocker.

Temporarily he was knocked out and when he climbed to his feet the broken arm was discovered.

A den, converted from a bedroom, is one of the features of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeAngelo, 955 North Hills boulevard. They occupied the recently-completed home in June.

There are two other bedrooms, a combined kitchen and dining room, living room, bath and basement.

Knotty pine cabinets highlight the kitchen which is painted light yellow. Dark green in the living room, light green bedrooms and blue in the bath, completes the color scheme.

Lad Fractures Arm Second Year in Row; Swears Off Football

A 14-year-old Pottstown boy has sworn off football.

John "Jackie" Sechrist, 565 Virginia avenue, made the vow after he broke his left arm in a sandlot encounter with the pigskin sport Saturday morning.

He explained, "I'm done with football forever. Last year I broke my right arm. And now it's my left. That's enough for me."

Jackie went to tackle his younger brother, Richard, 12, but before he could grab the shirt of the fleet ball carrier, he was rudely thumped backward by a blocker. Temporarily he was knocked out and when he climbed to his feet the broken arm was discovered.

A neighbor of the Sechrists, Jo-town hospital.

The past year Jackie broke his arm when he fell backward over a bench on the Junior High school athletic field.

He'll attend his Ninth grade classes today.

Participating in the Saturday morning scrimmage were the Sechrist brothers, Kenneth West, Roger Queen, Michael Johns and Richard Hurter.

Do You Remember?

Those grand old days when Pottstown and area was in its infancy—Here's another photo that may recapture a few moments of eternity for you, a picture to stir your memory and let you catch a glimpse of the past.

It's 1925, and Pottstown's most modern motion picture theater is going up on the southeast corner of High and Charlotte streets.

As the signs note, the steel work was furnished by Shoemaker Bridge works, which a few years later joined the list of bygone names.

The Hippodrome, west of the Strand, had been built 11 years earlier. Even earlier were a half dozen nickelodeons.

MAN SENTENCED FOR BURGLARY

Told by Judge to Stay Away From Taprooms

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Sept. 20 — Raymond W. Riddell, 22, of Pottstown, RD 3, a Korean veteran, was sentenced to serve 11 days in the county prison and placed on probation for 23 months by Judge George C. Corson, Friday, after he pleaded guilty to charges of burglary and larceny.

A condition of the probation is that Riddell remain out of taprooms. Judge Corson advised the defendant that he will be "a better citizen" if he remains away from intoxicating drink.

Judge Corson named Chief Probation Officer Russell L. Richards and Magistrate George Bennett, of Pottstown, as co-probation officers for the youth, who is employed at Jacobs Aircraft company.

Riddell was arrested early on the morning of Sept. 8 while he was in the act of ransacking the office of the Carl M. Dummire farm implement store on Route 422 at Sanatoga.

Chief Harry Chrusch detected the man inside the building while he was on patrol. He summoned Sgt. Harold Hahn and Patrolmen Thomas Corum and John Kirlin, from Pottstown, and Chief Daniel W. Guldin, of North Coventry township. All of the officers cooperated in the arrest.

Chief Chrusch said Riddell gained entrance to the place through a rear window after breaking the glass.

Following his arrest, Riddell confessed that he had stolen four tires from the garage of Paul Sawchuk, Lower Pottsgrove township, earlier in the morning.

Man Must Serve 2 to 23 Months for Attempted Murder

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Sept. 20—Having been convicted in criminal court on a charge of attempting to kill his ex-wife, William F. Kolis, 27, of West Seventh street, Chester, Friday was sentenced by Judge William F. Dannehower to serve from two to 23 months in the county prison and pay a $100 fine.

He was arrested Aug. 3 by State police of the Norristown sub-station at the Lakeside inn, Route 422, Limerick township, where he allegedly went with a .22 caliber rifle to shoot the former Elizabeth Skurla, his divorced wife, who is employed there as a waitress.

Before he had an opportunity to find the woman, however, Kolis was overpowered by two employees of the inn and held until police arrived.

In another case, Irvin W. Heintz, 40, of Gilbertville RD 1, who pleaded guilty to charges of indecent assault and assault and battery on his 16-year-old daughter, was sentenced by Judge Dannehower to serve from six to 23 months in the county prison.

He was arrested March 13 on complaint of his wife Miriam. She told the court that she does not want her husband to return home.

Salvation Army Cadets Hear Talks on Youth

Pottstown Salvation Army cadets heard a guest speaker from Hartford, Conn., at a supper meeting in the citadel recently.

The 21 teen-agers, known as the First Corps Cadets, participate in a six-year Bible course.

Their speaker was Mrs. Raymond Wilson, wife of an SA officer from southern New England headquarters.

She spoke of youth and its importance to the Church, using the biblical story of the rich young ruler as illustration.

Mrs. C. Robert Flinn and Marjorie Keim were in charge.
